BULGARIA ABOUT TO CAST HER LOT WITH THE CENTRAL POWERS

Dissatisfied With Serbia's Territorial Concessions and Conduct of Greece.

ENTENTE HOPE IS GONE

Military Measures Have Been Taken to Meet Rapidly Developing Situation.

Reported Demonstrations in Favor of Government.

Sofia, Bulgaria, Sept. 20, via London Sept. 22.—Bulgaria apparently is on the brink of war. The people generally believe that hostilities are imminent. The military authorities have taken possession of the railways and ordinary traffic has been suspended.

Diplomatic representatives here of the entente powers generally recognize that their cause is a lost one, and that Bulgaria is manifesting clearly a tendency toward the central powers. This is due to the dissatisfaction of the government at Serbia's reply in the negotiations for territorial concessions in Macedonia and at the conduct of Greece in this connection.

Military Measures for Prevention.

In government circles the statement was made today that all the military measures which have been taken are of a preventative nature, designed solely to guard against circumstances which might threaten Bulgaria's position in the present situation, which is developing with unforseen and extraordinary rapidity. These measures consist in turning over the railroads to the military authorities and suspending ordinary traffic.

Reports from many parts of Bulgaria tell of enthusiastic demonstrations in favor of the government.

The formal cession by Turkey of the territory along the Dedeaghatch has been delayed by the action of the entente powers in notifying Bulgaria that acceptance of this territory would be regarded as an unfriendly act which would invite counter measures.

It was learned today that King Ferdinand, replying last Friday to the assertions of leaders of the opposition parties that the Allies would be victorious, said:

"The entente is not sure of winning. Nothing indicates at this moment that such will be the case. If Bulgaria's chances of obtaining Macedonia depend thereon they may never be realized. My government is following a policy which is positive in action and certain of good results."

Rumors that Premier Radoslavoff is likely to resign are characterized in competent quarters as unfounded.

M. Radoslavoff today is imbued with the determination to carry out a program of unification of all Bulgarians in the Balkans.

Follow Policy to End.

Although the government's military measures are characterized as preventive, no attempt is made to hide the fact that Bulgaria's policy is fixed and that it will be followed energetically to the very end if this be necessary to obtain the purpose in view; namely, the incorporation of Macedonia within its boundaries.

The Associated Press is informed from the highest quarter that the opposition now understands this, having been forcibly impressed therewith during the conference with the King. Moreover, the opposition understands that its expressed wish to have the government convene parliament and form a coalition cabinet is impossible of fulfillment at present on account of the extraordinary rapidity which marks, under the surface, the coming of a great event in Bulgaria's history.

The note presented last week to the Bulgarian government by the entente powers was drafted in a futile effort to clear up the situation, resulting from Bulgaria's demand for Macedonia. At about the time this note was presented the Bulgarian government, it is asserted here in well informed quarters, sounded the entente powers concerning their progress in dealing with Serbia. Bulgaria was informed Serbia already had accepted her demands in part and that the entente governments were attempting to induce her to make further concessions. Bulgaria was assured Serbia would be obliged to cede the uncontested zone in Macedonia, and the Bulgarian government was counselled to abstain from premature military action.

In this connection the government was informed by the entente ministers here that the Allies were determined to obtain a complete victory over the central powers and that in pursuance of this program they were ready to employ every means available for sweeping aside "obstacles coming from any quarter."

Among the new forces added recently to the Bulgarian army are about 1,600 officers. Of these 408 are graduates of the military academy. The remainder consists of special reserve officers. The period of training was ended ten days in advance of the time originally set.

AN ARMED NEUTRALITY.

Premier Radoslavoff Says War Danger in Balkans Has Decreased.

Sofia, Sept. 21, via London, Sept. 22.—Vasell Radoslavoff, the Bulgarian minister, announced yesterday that the Austro-German offensive against Serbia began September 19.

So far there has been no general Bulgarian mobilization, but the troops

COMMISSION HEARS PLEAS FOR RELIEF

WASHINGTON, D. C. Library of Congress

New Hanover Had Best County Assessor in State.

SAYS CHAIRMAN TRAVIS

Delegations from Mecklenburg and Many Other Counties Appear Before Tax Commission Asking for Reductions.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 22.—During the hearing of the Mecklenburg delegation before the Corporation Commission today on their plea for relief from the 15 per cent raise in tax assessments, the New Hanover assessor came in for high praise by Chairman Travis, of the commission.

E. T. Cansler, for Mecklenburg, was pleading for reduction and Chairman Travis quoted figures to show Mecklenburg much lower than most of the other greater counties of the State such as New Hanover, Durham, Forsyth, Wake. Mr. Cansler was pleading depressed conditions in Charlotte when the chairman replied that it was not so much the greater growth of Wilmington as compared with Charlotte as it was the fact that New Hanover has the best county assessor in all the State.

The Mecklenburg county delegation presented their case, heard the views of the commission, through statements by Chairman E. L. Travis as to the justification for the assessment, and have gone home to await a promised written order disposing of the matter.

Here with the delegation were smaller delegations from a number of other counties, including Durham, Forsyth, Green, Pitt, Hoke, Pamlico, Wilson, Camden, Buncombe, Cabarrus, McDowell, Jones, Macon and others, all coming in a spirit of conciliation and cooperation and expressing confidence that the commission would deal justly and indeed mercifully with their people in the light of conditions that they portrayed.

The Mecklenburg hearing began at 11 o'clock with W. C. Dowd, chairman of the delegation, as master of ceremonies, E. T. Cansler and Heriot Clarkson questioned the various members of the delegation as they appeared before the commission, the better to bring out the facts and conditions as they were intended to impress the commissioners.

Tell of Depression.

All told of depressed conditions and falling off in values of real estate, county and city, the past two years 15 to 40 per cent, due, they thought, principally to war conditions and exceptionally bad cotton market last season. It was to meet conditions that they pleaded are far below normal that they urged that there should be no increase in tax assessments save those that the county assessors have made this year.

On the other hand, the commission, through Chairman Travis, reminded the delegation that the assessment and equalization this year is to stand four years and is made on the basis of the pressing needs of the State and in carrying out the demands of the Legislature in equalization as well as in having assessments sufficient to yield necessary revenue.

Following the Mecklenburg hearing the commission gave special hearings to a number of other counties, reserving orders until later and pledging to act on the merits of each.

Other Counties Heard.

Durham county begged for relief from the 10 per cent increase, the spokesmen being Victor Bryant, H. J. Reid and former Representative Brawley. Cabarrus county, through H. S. Williams, wanted relief from her 5 per cent increase.

Camden county expressed through Register of Deeds M. W. Ferebee the hope that the commission would ease up on the 10 per cent against them because of large areas of coastal swamp that put them to a disadvantge as compared with adjacent counties.

Buncombe county, through E. M. Lyda and J. E. Swain, pleaded for relief from her 5 per cent increase on account of great areas of rugged mountain lands of little or no available value.

Greene county, through J. A. Albritten, held that her lands were just as good as those of adjacent counties but that there were no large towns to give additional value to lands and wanted relief from the 5 per cent increase.

Wilson Wants Advice.

W. F. Woodard, for Wilson county, thought there should be relief for his county from the 10 per cent raise, but he was seeking particularly advise as to how to collect tax on $60,000 left by T. R. Lamm, deceased, that had never been taxed and on which back taxes are wanted. The commission pledged aid.

Fred Brown, for Hoke county, thought Hoke's 5 per cent should be remitted, but said he would not file figures given him by the county officers as he realized today that the commission had more and better figures on all the counties than any of them could possibly get. He realized that the commission was on the job and he would be satisfied with their action.

Forsyth was heard through Hugh Chatham and others, seeking relief from 10 per cent increase.

NOT DEPENDENT ON AMERICA FOR MEAT

England Would Buy From Argentina and Australia.

STEPS ALREADY TAKEN

President Runciman Points Out the Advantages of the British Board of Trade—Is "Satisfied" With Wheat Prospects—Freach Confidence.

London, Sept. 22. — "The board of trade does not allow the American Meat Trust to get all they ask for, nor ship owners to get all they want," Walter Runciman, president of the board of trade, stated in the House of Commons today in the course of a debate on financial matters, in which the high prices of food were commented upon.

Steps had been taken by the British government, Mr. Runciman said, to secure meat in Argentina, and Australia had assured a good supply. But for these measures, he said, there would have been a shortage really dangerous for the country.

During the next month, Mr. Runciman continued, the operations of the board of trade would amount to about 50,000,000 pounds sterling ($250,000,000). He added that the French government had such confidence in the board that they had placed the supplying of the French meat requirements in the hands of the board.

The Argentine meat supply, Mr. Runciman continued, was in the hands of a half dozen very powerful firms, mainly controlled in America. When the government tried to make contracts, he continued, he found prices excessive, and the only way in which it was able to deal with the situation was by requisitioning the whole tonnage that carried beef from South America to this country. The Australian government took control of the whole of the beef and mutton produced in the country, and loaded up the ships at cost prices.

Plenty and to Spare.

Great Britain, Mr. Runciman pointed out, thus supplied her own army and the French army, and a considerable surplus remaining was being sold for the benefit of the civil population. The operations had been on a gigantic scale and probably in the course of the next 12 months beef to the value of $250,000,000 would be bought, sold, and distributed by the board of trade.

Mr. Runciman expressed himself as "satisfied" with the wheat outlook. It was anticipated, he continued, that there would be larger crops imported by Europe from the United States, Canada, Australia and Argentina, than for some years past.

Reverting to the meat question, Mr. Runciman referred to the statement attributed to Arthur Meeker in Ambassador Dumba's letter to Foreign Minister Burian, of Austria-Hungary, made public last night, that he had not played his last trump, and that if Great Britain could not get meat from the United States or Argentine, she would soon give in. Mr. Runciman's comment was: "Having got meat and ships, we have no intention of giving in."

In Dr. Dumba's letter the remarks alluded to by Mr. Runciman were attributed to a "Mr. Meagher," supposed to be Arthur Meeker, of Armour & Co.

MUST AWAIT REPLY TO NOTE TO VIENNA

Dumba Won't be Given Safe Conduct Till Answer Comes

EXPECTED IN FEW DAYS

President Considering What Action Will Be Taken Against Other Parties Concerned in Letters Taken From Archibald.

Washington, Sept. 22.—The American government will make no effort to secure safe conduct from the United States of Dr. Constantin Dumba, Austro-Hungarian minister here, until the Vienna government has replied to the request that the ambassador be recalled. This was stated on high official authority tonight.

Dr. Dumba himself telegraphed Assistant Secretary Phillips, of the department, from Lenox, Mass., today, giving notice that his government had recalled him home on leave and asking that the American government arrange for his safe conduct to Vienna. He added that he planned to sail September 28. The message was addressed to Mr. Phillips without official title, the ambassador apparently treating his official status as ended.

Reply Expected Soon.

Acting Secretary Polk conferred with President Wilson tonight on the Dumba incident and other international questions. Later it became known that the United States would await formal word from the Austro-Hungarian foreign office before acting on Dr. Dumba's request. A reply from Vienna is expected within the next few days to the note asking that Dr. Dumba be withdrawn from Washington in consequence of a letter he wrote to his foreign minister outlining plans for disturbances in American munitions plants.

When the American government will be satisfied if Vienna carries out Dr. Dumba's request and gives notice that he is to be withdrawn "on leave" was not disclosed tonight, and will not be finally determined until it is seen what form the Austro-Hungarian reply takes. Inasmuch as dispatches from Vienna have indicated that the government there already has chosen a temporary successor to Dr. Dumba, it is taken for granted here that no attempt will be made to send the latter back here whatever may be the manner of his going.

The delay in receiving a reply to the Dumba note as believed by officials to be due to difficulty in communication between Washington and Vienna. Several messages received recently from Ambassador Penfield have been nearly a week in reaching Washington.

Considering Further Action.

The President was still considering tonight what action, if any to take in regard to Captain Franz von Papen, German military attache here. Alexander Nuber von Pereked, Austro-Hungarian consul general in New York, and other Austro-Hungarian and German officials involved in the Dumba incident. Photographic copies of more of the letters taken from James F. J. Archibald in London, will be awaited before final action will be taken.

A letter in German written by Captain von apen in which occurred a phrase which has been translated "these idotic yankees" was referred to translators at the State Department

BRYAN PAYS VISIT TO THE PRESIDENT

First Time He Had Called at White House Since Resigning.

SPEND HOUR TOGETHER

Believed They Discussed Bryan's Contemplated Trip to Europe—Neither Would Reveal the Character of Conversation.

Washington, Sept. 22.—President Wilson and former Secretary Bryan met at the White House today for the first time since the latter resigned from the cabinet there months ago. Mr. Bryan sought the interview "to pay respects." For nearly an hour the two were together in the Green room and they parted smiling. What the President had said, Mr. Bryan declined to reveal, nor would he intimate what subjects he himself had broached. The White House gave out no information beyond the statement that there had been a "general talk," pleasant and cordial.

From the fact that Mr. Bryan is contemplating a trip to Europe in the interest of peace, and from the opposition he had already expressed to large expeditures for national defense, official Washington assumed that he had touched on both subjects in his conversation with the President. It is understood, however, that the President is not disposed to approve or disapprove the idea of the trip to Europe and that he has not yet formed his own conclusions as to the national defense programme.

Mr. Bryan told friends later that he himself was undecided as to whether or not he would go to Europe and that he had speaking engagements up to November 1, so that it was unlikely he would reach a decision before then. He left today to continue his lecturing for peace and will also make a number of speeches on national defense.

Mr. Bryan's visit to the White House attracted wide attention. In an electric automobile, which he drove himself, he appeared at noon. A few minutes before Secretary Daniels had presented Henry Ford, the automobile manufacturer, to the President. Later in the day Mr. Ford and Mr. Bryan conferred in the latter's home concerning the forwarding of the peace movement against national preparedness.

CIVIL WAR PENSION ROLL DECREASED TEN PER CENT.

Over Thirty-Three Thousand Union Soldiers Died the Past Year.

Washington, Sept. 22.—Death decreased the government's civil war pension roll nearly ten per cent. during the last fiscal year, according to the annual report of Commissioner of Pension Sulzaberger made public today. A total of 396,370 union veterans remained on the roll July 1 33, 225 less than a year ago. Payments to civil war pensioners during the year totalled $156,668,771, compared with $172,417,546 in 1914.

Pension office records show the total death toll since the close of the war has been 1,816,995. In that period the Federal government has paid to veteranns, their windows and children $4,614,643, 267.

LONDON IS GIVEN SUDDEN SENSATION

Bulgar Mobilization Overshadows Other War News.

COMMENT IS WITHHELD

German Claim Progress Throughout Mid-Poland—General Activity of Austro-Germans Along the Serbian Frontier.

London, Sept. 22.—A war move that may solve the riddle of the Balkans—mobilization of the Bulgarian army—has struck London with dramatic suddenness. The afternoon newspapers, refrained from editorial comment, and neutral readers of these publications, except for drawing their own conclusions from large type heads and such captions as "Balkan Sensation," would be none the wiser as to whether England regarded the developments as a preliminary victory for the central powers, or merely another overnight turn of the Greco-Serbian-Bulgarian negotiations.

The consensus of opinion was that although the Bulgar army is now on the move, Bulgaria has not yet cast her lot with one side or the other, but is, as her minister here expressed it, still neutral, still waiting, but armed.

The first bulletin announcing Bulgaria's mobilization reached London by way of New York. It was quickly followed by a stream of telegrams from the European capitals to the effect that mobilization, partial or general, had been ordered at Sofia, the Bulgarian cavalry have taken the field and that Bulgars of fighting age were hurrying home. Subsequently came the news of excitement at Athens and of the conference of the King with political leaders. But from Sofia itself, the British press received no details.

There is general activity of the Austro-German forces along the Serbian frontier. A semi-official dispatch from Nish repudiates reports that Serbia has been asked in effect to remain quiescent while the Austro-Germans conduct their campaign southwards.

The developments in Bulgaria threw into comparative obscurity the continued Russian retreat from Vilna, but, with the exception that the northern tip of the Polish front where the Russians are on the offensive near Friedrichstadt, the Germans claim progress throughout mid-Poland as far south as Ostrow, which they have captured. The greatest number of prisoners taken at any point, however, did not exceed 2,000, which would seem to indicate that the attempt to complete the coils around the retreating Russians has proved unsuccessful.

NOT JOIN CENTRAL POWERS.

Minister Mischeff Says Bulgaria Will Remain Neutral.

London, Sept. 22. — The Bulgarian minister, M. Mischeff, was advised today of his government's mobilization order. He stated this meant Bulgaria would maintain her neutrality, but that it would be an armed neutrality.

On being asked whether Bulgaria intended to join with the Central Powers M. Mischeff replied emphatically:

"Certainly not!"

GOVERNOR REGRETS MRS. M'CRAW'S ACT

In Writing Letter of Protest Against Husband's Pardon.

ATTITUDE A SURPRISE

In Letter to Wilmington Woman He Says He Has No Record or Recollection of Her Protesting Before Granting Pardon.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 22.—Answering a remarkable letter of protest by Mrs. O. E. McCraw, of Wilmington, against his action in granting a conditional pardon for her husband from the remainder of a 20-year sentence for murder, Governor Craig expressed surprise and regret at the attitude of the wife.

He wrote that he had examined all the papers and could find no letter from her and that he recalls no protest from her, although she wrote that she had written before the pardon pleading that he decline to pardon. He asked her to send him any letter she might have from him. He remembered writing none. The Governor reminds her that the pardon is conditional, and that if violated or if he interferes with her it can and will be revoked.

"You say," writes the Governor, "that his persecution of you has begun anew but do not specify any act. What has he done that you complain of?"

"I have no power to forbid his living in Wilmington and if I had the power I would not exercise it. As long as he obeys the law and is a good citizen he has a right to live wherever he chooses."

The Governor reviews the evidence as to sufficient punishment and the great number of people asking for the pardon and continues:

"I sympathize with you in the trouble which has come upon you. I sympathize, too, with your children for the humiliation and pain that has come upon them from a situation for which they are not responsible, but this suffering by you and your children is due or should be due to the crime of your husband and his imprisonment and not to his release from prison; to his condemnation and not to his pardon. To the wife and children should come relief, melancholy though it be, for the pardon of husband and father, after the consideration of all the facts.

"A just and generous people will not impute the crime and misfortune of the husband and father to the wife and children. The past life of your husband will cause sorrow to you and your children, but it will in no way blight their prospects hereafter any more than it has done heretofore. I enclose a list of the good people who recommended the pardon of your husband, many of whom wrote letters to the effect that he was not responsible when he committed the crime for which he was punished.

"The exercise of the pardoning power is a responsibility the Governor cannot avoid. He must act in the granting and refusal of pardons, he should administer the law in justice and in mercy. In the earnest desire to do right, I realize that I must make mistakes. After full consideration, I granted a pardon to your husband. I have a letter from him this morning expressing his gratitude for the pardon. He says he is resolved hereafter to abstain from the use of intoxicating liquors and drugs, and is determined to make a good citizen, to obey the law, and show that he is not unworthy of the clemency that has been granted him. I hope and believe that I have not made a mistake in granting him the pardon."

Remarkably Strong Letter.

Mrs. McCraw's letter is one of the strongest that the Chief Executive has ever received and is all the more remarkable because it comes from the wife of the prisoner. Mr. McCraw, she declares, has returned to Wilmington and although the term "persecution" and other words descriptive of her feeling for her husband are employed, the letter cites no overt act of wrong done by the pardoned prisoner.

The crime for which McCraw was punished severely was the murder of Mrs. McCraw's mother. This occurred shortly after the birth of the last child of Mrs. McCraw. In the name of her children, whom she declares to have been debased and disgraced by their father, she passionately appeals to Governor Craig to do something to remove McCraw from Wilmington where she declares that he has no real reason for being because he is not a native of that place and has no interest there.

Mrs. McCraw declares that she has many times written to the Governor not to pardon her husband. Her letter closes with the hope of forgiveness to the Governor whose clemency, she declares, has added so much to the misery of herself and her children.

Reasons for Pardon.

"I was struck with the fact that McCraw proved a good character until this trouble and with the further fact that he committed the crime while doped and full of drink," Governor Craig said to a correspondent. "He was pretty severely punished, I thought, and in granting him a conditional pardon I make him a free citizen so long as he is of good behavior. If he returns to Wilmington and starts any trouble he can be returned to the prison at any time.

"That is a strong letter of Mrs. McCraw's and I can appreciate her feelings, but I cannot feel that the shame brought upon the family to which the letter refers, was brought by his pardon but by his crime. I had thought that his restoration to freedom would lift from the family the disgrace of having a man in the penitentiary. Of course no governor has any power to say to a pardoned prisoner that he shall not go to any place after pardoned.

"I intend to go into the case and find

FEDERAL INDICTMENTS FOR EASTLAND WRECK

True Bills Returned Against Eight Men.

They Are Charged With Conspiracy and Criminal Carelessness—Six Others Previously Indicted by the State Jury.

Chicago, Sept. 22.—Federal indictments in connection with the Eastland disaster July 24, when the excursion steamer capsized in the Chicago river, causing the death of 812 persons, were returned today charging conspiracy and criminal carelessness in the operation of an unseaworthy boat.

Those named in the true bills were: George T. Arnold, president of the St. Joseph-Chicago Steamship Company, owners of the Eastland.

William H. Hull, vice president and manager of the same company.

Walter K. Greenbaum, manager of the Indiana Transportation Company, which chartered the Eastland for the excursion.

Harry Pedersen, captain of the vessel

Joseph Ericksen, chief engineer.

Robert Reed and Charles C. Eckliff, government steamship inspectors at Grand Haven, Mich.

W. C. Steele, secretary-treasurer of the St. Joseph-Chicago Steamship Company and the Indiana Transportation company as corporations.

Arnold, Hull, Pederson, Ericksen, Steele and Roy M. Davis, assistant secretary-treasurer of the St. Joseph-Chicago Steamship Company, were indicted several weeks ago by a state grand jury in connection with the disaster.

San Francisco, Sept. 22.—A council for national defense was advocated today by Lieut. Commander Dudley W. Knox, U. S. ., in a discussion of war and related topics by naval experts of three nations at today's session of International Engineering Congress.

DISCUSSES PLANS FOR PEACE WITH PRESIDENT

Henry Ford Also Talks With Secretary Daniels.

Discussed Ways and Means of Perfecting Motors for Submarines and Aeroplanes—To Take Trip in a Submarine.

Washington, September 22. — Henry Ford, the Detroit manufacturer, conferred with President Wilson and Secretary Daniels, today. With the former he talked about plans for forwarding the cause of peace. With Secretary Daniels he discussed ways and means of perfecting gasoline motors for use in submarines and aeroplanes.

Secretary Daniels agreed to furnish Mr. Ford with a complete history of the difficulties the navy has experienced with gasoline motors, and, in return, Mr. Ford promised he would endeavor to correct the present defects.

Mr. Ford, it was said, would take a trip in a submarine at some date in the near future, to see for himself just how they are operated while submerged. Regarding control of aeroplanes by wireless, Mr. Ford said he believed such control was possible.

WANTS ALL-DIXIE PENNANT.

Jack Corbett Challenges New Orleans Club, in Southern League.

Asheville, N. C., Sept. 23.—Jack Corbett, manager of the Asheville Club of the North Carolina League, which today won the final game of the series from Rocky Mount, of the Virginia League, has issued a challenge to Manager John Dobbs, of the New Orleans team, in the Southern League, for a series to determine the winners of an all-Dixie pennant. Manager Dobbs won such a pennant while Manager of the Chattanooga team in the South Atlantic League.

SEVEN BODIES TAKEN FROM SUBWAY WRECK

Investigations Being Made of New York Disaster.

Cause of Accident Has Not Been Officially Determined—Blaster is Being Hunted by Police on a Charge of Homicide.

New York, September 22. — Although rapid progress was made in the task of uncovering the section of the Seventh Avenue subway excavation, wrecked by a dynamite blast today, no more bodies were recovered and the death list late tonight remained at seven. Two of the dead were passengers on a trolley which plunged into the excavation when the blast destroyed the temporary support for a block between Twenty-Fourth and Twenty-Fifth streets.

The four other dead were laborers engaged in subway work. Comparatively few of the 100 passengers who went down with the car sustained serious injuries.

Tonight four investigations were under way. How the accident happened has not been officially determined, beyond the fact that the blast ripped out the underpinning in the block, causing it to cave in. In an effort to fix responsibility, the police search turned to Augusto Newzanotte, also known as August Mimnight, the blaster, who is missing. He is wanted on a charge of homicide.

The contractors in charge of the subway work declared that their rules require that every man in the excavation within 200 feet of the point where the blast is exploded, must leave, and that ample warning must be given in order to stop all traffic. Examination of the trolley car showed its wheels were locked as it struck after its fall. The motorman said he received a signal to stop when in the middle of the block.

The death list was increased to seven

FOREIGN COMMISSION IN A LENGTHY SESSION

Delay in Announcement of Success of Loan.

Report Says Financiers are Waiting to Learn Whether Russia Wants Part in the Proposed Credit. Nothing Disclosed.

New York, Sept. 22.—The Anglo-French financial commission, who are here to establish a huge credit for Great Britain and France, were in continual session for ten hours today. After a recess for dinner the commission re-assembled with every indication that the meeting would last till after midnight. The absorbing matters discussed in the all-day and all-night conference were not disclosed. Apparently their nature was unknown to the American bankers who have been conferring with the commission.

Early in the day it became established that the anticipated announcement of the success of the commission's work here in raising a credit loan of from $600,000,000 to $800,000,000 would not be forthcoming today, was not expected tomorrow, would be received with surprise if issued early as Friday and might not be made till next week. A dozen rumors sought to tell why the expected announcement should have been deferred.

One report was that the commission was marking time till the cables should bring word from Pierre L. Bark, the Russian minister of finance, as to whether Russia wanted a slice of the proposed loan and upon what terms she would share in it. Another report was that the commission was rounding off a mass of minor details, tedious and somewhat vexatious but not of great importance.

Several American bankers ventured the opinion that there might be an

SKETCH OF SWEDE WHO REVIVED WRESTLING HERE.

Never Downed by a Man His Weight. Welterweight Champion.

A clipping from one of the daily papers in Concord, N. H., contains the following sketch of the life of Fritz Hanson, who has revived wrestling in Wilmington and who is giving high class entertainment to large numbers of fans every week at Woolvin Hall:

"The young man who has done so much to revive wrestling in Concord was born in Gottenburg, Sweden, on the 25th day of November, 1886. The advent of Fritz Hanson caused no great comment on the country, for many Hansons were born every day and a number of them are Christened Fritz. But this lusty, sturdy descendant of the Vikings has since been heard from on two continents and many have read the fine career of Fritz Hanson, the champion welterweight wrestler of the world.

"In 1889 Hanson moved to this country with his parents, his father accepting a position as a draftsman at Worcester, Mass., where he still lives. When 16 years old Fritz ran away from home and took up the career of a professional wrestler and since that eventful time he has not been beaten at his weight. His first mat battle was with Dominic Egnaw, at Southbridge, Mass., for the featherweight championship. After meeting all comers for a period of three years, the young Swede was selected by Hjalmar Lundin, the clever Swedish heavyweight, as a partner in a wrestling tour of Europe.

"The two men were in Europe for about six months in 1897, the greater part of their time being spent with circuses, when purses were put up for a man who could stay with either Hanson of Lundin for 15 minutes, and although there were fine men in Sweden, neither man was defeated.

On September 27, 28 and 29, of 1907, in Upsala, Sweden, there was a wrestling tournament. Hanson entered in the welterweight class with about 30 others of the best men in Europe, and at the end of three days, was the undefeated welterweight. So when he returned to the shores of the adopted country, it was with the title and cup indicative of the championship welterweight of Europe.

"Since then Hanson has not been defeated by any man of his weight, although he has had over 500 matches."

Another clipping from the same paper tells of the match Hanson had with Billy Saxon, winning the Lord Landsdown belt, carrying with it the welterweight championship of the world.

Hanson will arrive in the city this morning accompanied by Mrs. Hanson. They are making their home at the Orton Hotel. Tomorrow night Hanson will wrestle Young Muldoon, of New York. Muldoon is a slight bit heavier than Hanson and reported to be a tough wrestler. It will likely be one of the very interesting matches of the season.

Pittsburgh, Sept. 22.—Brooklyn and Pittsburgh divided a doubleheader here today, the former winning the first game, 4 to 2 and the latter the second, 2 to 1. Cooper was hit hard in the opening game and had a wild pitch with the bases full in the first inning which resulted in two runs being scored. He was relieved at the end of the fourth by Slattery who stopped the scoring. The Pirates won the second game in the eighth when Carey and Barney walked and scored on Hummel's double. Up to that inning Cheney, for the visitors, had allowed only one scratch hit.

Chicago, Sept. 22.—New York today defeated Chicago 3 to 1 in their final game of the season. Lavender was wild in the third inning and after he had passed Grant and Burns, Robertson doubled, sending two runs home for the Giants.

Benton worked in fine form, and that lead was enough for thetaoishrdlueta win. Only one ma nreached second base after the first inning, when two hits and an error netted the Cubs one run and saved them from a shut out. The rest o fthe locals' hits were scattered.

TYNG WINS IN FIRST SECTION SENIORS GOLF TOURNAMENT

Rye, N. Y., Sept. 22.—James A. Tyng, of Baltimore, led the field at the end of the first section in the annual seniors golf tournament today over the links of the Apawamis Club. His card was 90-86-176. Unless there is some one to do better than this in the second section tomorrow and Friday, Mr. Tyng will be the winner of the chief cup.

Rollo Ogden, of Baltusrol, came second, with 91-86-177, and his card of 86-12-74 for a total of 153, made him the leader for the net prize in Class A. H. W. Ormsbee, of Pinehurst, N. C., showed the way in Class C, with 94-14-84-171.

Justice Maplon Pitney, of the United States Supreme Court, arrived today, and will compete in the second sixteen.

PART OF SERIES IN BRAVES' FIELD IF THE RED SOX WIN.

Boston, Sept. 22.—Braves' Field, the largest baseball ground in the country, will stage one end of the world series games next month unless the Red Sox are displaced from the leadership in the American League.

President Joseph J. Lannin, of the club, today announced that he had accepted the offer of President Gaffney, of the Boston Nationals, extending the use of Braves' Field for all of the home games of the Red Sox in the series. Last year the Braves occupied Fenway Park in the games which won them a world championship, the payment covering only the actual expenses, and it is understood that a similar financial arrangement will govern the use of Braves' Field by the Red Sox.

For the big series the field probably will be equipped to seat more than 50,000 persons. Such an attendance would break all records of the game in this country. The present stands hold 42,500 seats, and it is proposed to erect a temporary stand in right center field seating about 10,000 more.

ASHEVILLE WINS SERIES FOR INTER-STATE HONORS

Asheville, N. C., Sept. 22.—Asheville today won the Inter-State championship series from Rocky Mount, pennant winners of the Virginia League. The score was 5 to 3. The locals did not go into the series with the same team with which they won the pennant in the North Carolina League, and for that reason, Virginia League owners say Asheville's victory does not prove that the North Carolina circuit, a class D. organization, is stronger than the Virginia circuit which is a class higher.

Boston, Sept. 22.—The Red Sox continued their winning streak today, defeating Cleveland twice, 3 to 2 and 7 to 1. The visitors had a lead of two runs in the first game, with Jones pitching strongly, up to the eighth inning. Then a pass to Scott and Speaker's double caused Jones' banishment and Klepfer who followed, was hit for the three runs. After Cleveland had batted Foster for a run in the first inning of the second game, the Boston pitcher tightened and held them without further score.

Mitchell struck out five men consecutively in the second and third innings, but in the fourth was hit safely four times for as many runs.

Graney, the Cleveland left fielder, retired from the game with a wrenched shoulder after making a tumbling catch in the first inning of the second game.

New York, Sept. 22.—St. Louis took both ends of a double header from New York today 4 to 2 and 3 to 1. The visitors used young pitchers in both games, McCabe winning his third straight game. Tillman, a former Colonial Leaguer, held New York to two infield hits for eight innings in the second game, but weakened in the ninth when Weilman relieved him. Caldwell, of New York, and Austin, of St. Louis, were ordered off the field in the second game by Umpire Chill for protesting decisions.

Philadelphia, Sept. 22.—The worst played game of the season here resulted today in a 13 to 9 victory for Detroit. Bad pitching and poor fielding were exhibited by both teams, Detroit using four pitchers and Philadelphia three. In the seventh inning Detroit overcame the home team's lead and won the game by scoring ten runs. Nine men faced J. Bush in this inning and he was then taken out with no one retired. These nine men got on the bases on three hits, three passes and three errors and six of them scored. Eccles took J. Bush's place and two singles and another error sent in four more runs.

Washington, Sept. 22.—Chicago was shut out in the second game of the series here today, 2 to 0. Gallia was wild but was not hit effectively and was aided by good support in the pinches. Ayers relieved him in the sixth with two men on and none out and held the White Sox safe the rest of the way. McBride's triple and a single by Judge gave Washington a run in the third, and another came in the sixth on singles by Milan and Barber and Shanks' fluke double, which Fournier trapped but failed to hold.

BOSTON AMERICANS BEGIN TO PLAN FOR THE WORLD'S SERIES

New York, Sept. 22.—The Boston Americans who now are making their plans for participation in the world's series, today recovered the ground they lost yesterday by winning a doubleheader from Cleveland. The Red Sox tonight are four and one-half games ahead of the Detroit Tigers who defeated Connie Mack's Philadelphia recruits. With only 12 games remaining on their schedule, the Red Sox have only to win seven even should the Tigers fail to lose one of their ten games. Applications for reservations already have started to pour into the Boston club's office.

Neither Philadelphia nor Boston in the National League played today. Brooklyn played a doubleheader, winning and losing. The standing thus remains virtually unchanged, the Phillies leading by five and one-half games over Boston and six over Brooklyn.

New York, Sept. 22.—The Holland-American Line steamer Rotterdam, which arrived here on Monday from Rotterdam, sailed today for Newport News where she will go into drydock for repairs before returning to Rotterdam September 28.

If you missed the Hanson-Mainfort match last Friday night, it was your own fault. Be on hand tomorrow night, Woolvin Hall. (advertisement.)

RACING AT COLUMBUS SLOW AND BUT FEW CLOSE FINISHES.

Columbus, O., Sept. 22.—Out of 17 heats of competitive grand circuit racing today, there was a poor time average and few close finishes, but overthrows of the favorites in both sections of the 2:15 trot. The first division of this race went to Roy Miller, second choice, with favored Parcliffe outside the money. Rose D., and Indiana half-miler, was back in the first heat of the second division but she easily showed the way home in each of the next three miles. Fair Virginia and King Charlie were in most favor.

ENLARGING FERTILIZER FACTORY.

Washington Schools Open—Baptist Revival Meeting—Tobacco Market.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Washington, N. C., Sept. 22.—The Washington public schools opened for their regular fall and winter term yesterday morning. Among the speakers who addressed the pupils and teachers were Hon. J. H. Small, County Superintendent W. G. Privitte, Superintendent Fletcher of the Washington Collegiate Institute; Rev. H. B. Searight, Rev. R. V. Hope, and Rev. E. M. Snipes.

Washington's tobacco market is proving a big success, and large quantities of the golden weed are daily sold at the three large warehouses in this city. Yesterday nearly 37,000 pounds of tobacco were sold at excellent prices. The warehousemen claim that the prices are getting better all the time and the grade of tobacco sold is also improving each day. The farmers are well pleased with the prices paid.

The large fertilizer factory of the Pamlico Chemical Company, situated on Pamlico river just below this city, is undergoing extensive improvements. Work has already begun enlarging the building, and it is understood the capacity of the plant will be doubled.

Rev. I. N. Loftin, of Elizabeth City, is holding a series of revival services at the Baptist church of this city. Large crowds are attending the meeting.

WORK FOR EVERYBODY.

Laborers Are Scarce and Cotton Pickers Wanted.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., Sept. 22.—Labor is now, as usual at this time of the year, the big problem that confronts the planters of this section of the State. There is a big demand for cotton pickers. Most of the planters are trying to get the staple out of the fields early. Many negroes are being hauled in wagons from Kinston to plantations far out every day, the trip out being made at the break of dawn and the return after nightfall.

Jones and Pamlico counties want cotton field hands, and carloads and boatloads are being transported to those counties from the towns in this section. The tobacco plants here are employing many hundreds of black men and women at better prices than the cotton farmers could afford to pay. One local negro recently returned from the North told his employer today that wages there had decreased until they were lower now than here.

PLAYGROUND FOR GREENSBORO

May Be Gift of Greensboro College for Women to City.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Greensboro, N. C., Sept. 22.—Greensboro College for Women is considering the matter of giving to the City of Greensboro a strip of ground between the college and the city high school, fronting on West Market street as a park and playground site. The commissioners have recently purchased the Bray property adjoining the college property and the high school property also adjoins it. The playground would be of great value to the city schools.

Going to Settle Dispute.

Mr. H. E. Bonitz, the well known Wilmington architect, left yesterday for Greenville, N. C., where he will give expert testimony in court in a dispute that has arisen between another architect there, who drew plans for the construction of a building, and the contractor, who is erecting it. Mr. Bonitz will go to Greenville again in a few days to be present at the opening of the bids for the construction of the new school buildings, plans for which he has drawn.

Invokes God's Reward For Pellagra Cure

Jumbo, Va.—J. H. Satterwhite writes: "I want to thank you for what you have done for me. You have cured my wife. God bless you in your work. I hope some day to see you; if I never see you I hope to meet you in heaven. God will reward you for your grand and noble work."

There is no longer any doubt that pellagra can be cured. Don't delay until it is too late. It is your duty to consult the resourceful Baughn.

The symptoms—hands red like sunburn, skin peeling off, sore mouth, the lips, throat and tongue a flaming red, with mucus and choking; indigestion and nausea, either diarrhoea or constipation.

There is hope; get Baughn's big Free book on Pellagra and learn about the remedy for Pellagra that has at last been found. Address American Compounding Co., Box 2097 Jasper, Ala., remembering money is refunded in any case where the remedy fails to cure.—Adv.

CITIZENS OF BLADEN AFTER THAT HIGHWAY

Wilmington-Charlotte Route via Elizabethtown

In Preparation for Energetic Good Roads Campaign in Bladen, Citizens Inspect Good Roads of Neighboring Counties.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Fayetteville, Sept. 22.—For the purpose of inspecting Cumberland county's sand-clay roads as a part of their preparation for inaugurating an energetic good roads campaign in Bladen, a party of prominent men from Bladen county were in Fayetteville this week. After getting a good look at Cumberland's good roads they left for Dunn. Their trip will carry them over the counties of Cumberland, Harnett, Hoke and Lee, where pointers as to the value of the different kinds of road-building material will be picked up by the committee. Mr. J. Beatty, chairman of Bladen's board of county commissioners, is at the head of the party.

The primary object of the Bladen men in inaugurating the movement at this time is to secure the Wilmington-Charlotte Highway. There are several contemplated routes for this highway. The one most likely to be adopted, it is said, is via Clinton, Roseboro and Fayetteville, and thence by the national highway as far as Wadesboro. There are other routes through Columbus and Brunswick which might be used, but the Bladen men want the official Charlotte-Wilmington highway to run through their county. The route they would have selected would be from Wilmington to Clarkton, from Clarkton to Elizabethtown and St. Paul, and thence to Wadesboro. The first step in achieving this object is to have the roads brought up to standard. The fact that Bladen is awakening in the matter of good roads is gratifying to the people of Cumberland, as it will mean a closer communication between these two neighboring counties.

In addition to Mr. Beatty the members of the party were Graham Johnston, J. A. Marshburn, H. M. Corbett, Frank Tatum, J. F. Johnston, C. F. Smith, and M. C. Duffie, road supervisors in their townships; A. M. Lucas, J. Alden Lyon, J. F. Dellinger and C. F. Dellinger.

S. S. S. Greatest Blood Remedy Gives Results When Others Fail

Nature's Remedy For Blood Troubles.

The purifying and curative properties of Nature's great remedy have made "S. S. S. for the Blood" a household saying. Thousands today enjoying perfect health owe their recovery from blood or skin diseases to this universally used blood purifier. S. S. S. is made entirely from roots, herbs and barks, which possess cleansing and healing ingredients. You cannot be well when your blood is impure; you lack strength and energy natural with health; your complexion becomes pale and sallow; your vitality is weakened. When waste or refuse matter, which Nature intends shall be thrown off, is left in the system, it is absorbed into the blood and boils, pimples, rashes, blotches and other eruptions of the skin appear.

S. S. S. goes into the circulation and removes every particle of blood taint or poison of every character. All skin diseases and eruptions pass away, and the smooth clear skin, glowing with health, shows that the body is being nourished by rich, pure blood. Rheumatism, Catarrh, Scrofula, Contagious Blood Poison, all are deep-seated blood disorders, and for their treatment nothing equals S. S. S. Get S. S. S. at any drug store. THEATRICAL

"Mister Paganini," a powerful Biograph drama in two parts, is the feature attraction on at the Grand today. It's a story of the mountains full of action and good acting, just the kind that will keep you interested in every character. The cast includes Jack Drumeir, Joseph McDermott, Mary Malatesta and Ivan Christy. Don't miss this masterpiece. It is one of Roy Norton's stories.

Vitagraph offers for today a one-reel comedy entitled, "She Took a Chance," Kate Price, William Shea, Johnny Cahill and William Sloane are in the cast. Mrs. Luckey takes a chance on a prize pig. She wins and her family make it the prize goat. After many troubles, Piggie's strenuous career comes to an end in the sausage factory.

And still another "Train Order No. 45," one of the Hazards of Helen Series, featuring that little dare devil, "Helen Holmes." Unable to prove that she had train order No. 45 signed by Estman, the conductor of the freight, Helen was suspended when neglect to obey the contents of that order came within an ace of causing a head-on collision. Bordon, the girl telegrapher's relief, had stolen the order and destroyed it in his effort to have her dismissed. From this point Helen gets busy and performs some hair-raising stunts that will make you hold on to your seat with a death grip.

The show as a whole will surely please you. Look us over today. Admission only five cents. Remember the Grand has a feature every day.

Big Day at Bijou.

There's no getting away from the fact that this is indeed a "banner week" at the Bijou, and despite the threatening weather it's been a "banner week" in point of attendance. For the programme for the week is undoubtedly the biggest that Wilmington has seen. Today, even all past performances are gone "one better" in the presentation of a mammoth four-reel spectacular feature, "Coral," the delightful romance of a sea waif, featuring one of the greatest all-star casts ever seen in such a production, including Marie Walcamp, Wellington Playter, Sherman Bainbridge and Rex De Rosselli.

Scene From "Coral," Four-Reel Feature at the Bijou Today.

Cast up by the sea on the sands, closely clasped in her mother's arms, a little blonde babe is found one morning by an old fisherman. The years roll by. A yacht enters the harbor where the waif of the sea has lived the life of a Virginian. And then comes love, and romance, life in the great city, the achievement of fame in the world of art and final happiness. "Coral" possesses an individual charm, a delightful aroma of salt water, and the tang of the sea, and will hold your attention for full four reels—an entire hour of solid enjoyment.

The twenty-ninth great episode of "The Romance of Elaine" makes out today's great six-reel bill. In this great chapter, many new developments take place. Another mysterious old man appears and seems to be everywhere all the time. Del Mar attempts some more of his rascally planning and execution, but in each instance is thwarted in his designs. As this great serial nears a close, it is actually getting more thrilling and more complicated with each succeeding chapter.

Al G. Field's Greater Minstrels.

The following criticism of Al G. Field's Greater Minstrels which comes to the Academy of Music for a matinee and night performance next Monday, was clipped from the Charlotte News of September 17th:

"That Al Fields holds Charlotte in the hollow of his big, friendly hand, was proved yesterday, for about the one hundredth time.

"The show drew the biggest crowd it has drawn in two years. The house was packed almost to suffocation. Beside the 'sitting' humanity there was a mass of standing humanity in the 'foyer', four or five rows deep. The audiences, matinee and night, were equal in size, each a magnificent tribute of appreciation of the show and affectionate regard for the great master of minstrelsy.

"The show was great. The fun was incessant, the features new, each bringing down the house; the music, 'the best ever'; the dialogue between Al and the end man on the war, just fairly 'killing'; the scenic effects wonderful and the whole thing a master work of sense, art talent, tone and color.

"Charlotte never fails Al Fields. His appearance on the stage was the signal for an ovation. Scores of people from this section of the State, Morganton, Salisbury, Statesville, Concord, Gastonia, Mt. Holly, Monroe and other cities being represented."

The matinee prices will be 50 cents and 75 cents for adults and 25 cents for children to any seat in the theatre. The night prices will be 50 cents, 75 cents and $1. Tickets for both performances will be placed on sale Friday morning at Plummer's.

"The Winning of Barbara Worth."

"The Winning of Barbara Worth" is going to attract a big crowd to the Academy, matinee and night, Saturday. It is in the air. People know that the book from which the play is taken is one of the best ever written. They know that Harold Bell Wright stands for all that is good and thoroughly American, without making his characters the milk-and-water sort. "The Winning of Barbara Worth" breathes the air of mountain and plain. The characters are true to life. There is dash, snap, comedy and sensation in every moment of Mark E. Swan's wonderful dramatization. There is a splendid life-like scenic display. The thorough advertising methods have convinced the public that they are going to get full value for their money.

Manager Bailey has satisfied himself that the play, company and production is all that is claimed for it, and offers the attraction, confident that it will prove to be one of the best, if not the best of the season. The matinee prices will be from 50 cents to $1. The night prices will range from 50 cents to $1.50. Tickets will go on sale this morning at Plummer's.

"The Rosary" Tonight.

Tonight the Victoria theatre will offer for the first time in this city at popular prices an elaborate production of Edward Rose's great play the "Rosary."

Manager Marx S. Nathan, of the Victoria, wishes to call attention to the readers of these columns to the fact that the Victoria is not now offering moving pictures nor have they offered such as any time since the house changed management early the past June.

The new policy of the Victoria has lifted the theatre from the tabloid form of musical comedy which has previously been offered at this house and now places the theatre upon a high plane, offering to amusement lovers of this city only the better grade of theatricals.

The three plays which have already been given at the Victoria since the pretty playhouse reopened under the new management and new policy on September 13 have been "The Lion and the Mouse," a play which scored a hit in New York when first produced several seasons ago. The second offering was "Paid in Full," the play which made Eugene Walter, the dramatist, famous in every English speaking country, and for the first half of the present week was presented "The Third Degree," another master drama by Mr. Klein. All of these were given at popular prices.

These plays have been presented on an elaborate scale from every viewpoint, the scenery and property effects were gorgeous, the company which is presenting the Victoria offerings is away above the average and compares most favorably with the players who are seen with the road attractions.

Wilmington has never before been listed among the cities which have these companies and the Victoria solicits the patronage of the amusement lovers.

Starting tonight, the offering will be the "Rosary," a play written by Edward Rose, an author who has given the stage more successes than any other playwright within the past decade, being such well known plays as "The Prisoner of Zenda," "Janice Meredith," "Alice of Old Vincinnes," "Richard Carvel," "David Harum" and others.

In offering to Wilmington theatregoers "The Rosary" the Victoria assures their patrons of an excellent production. Mr. Williams, the scenic artist has been busily engaged for the past several days painting the entire four acts, which are elaborate. The scenes are so laid as to give almost unlimited scope to the artist and in offering "The Rosary," the Victoria will present a production which will cause the audience to marvel at how they really can build and paint such pretty scenery, and it must be remembered, too, that all of this scenery is made right here in this city. It is not sent away for. The work is given out and designed from the Victoria, the lumber, paints, cloths for the scenery, etc., are bought and paid for in this city, thus creating a regular rotation of the funds which come and go from the box office.

"The Rosary" will be submitted to Victoria patrons for tonight and Friday night and Saturday matinee and night.

CHECK FOR MOONLIGHT SCHOOLS.

Caldwell Delegation Heard—National Guard Report—Health Work.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 22.—A personal friend of Dr. J. Y. Joyner, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, has sent to the State Department of Education a check for $100, which he requests to have applied to the "moonlight school" movement in this State. In sending his check the gentleman requested that his name be not mentioned in any possible newspaper reference to the gift. The donor expressed the deepest interest in the "moonlight school" movement. He spent some time at Asheville this summer and learned much of the movement in this State, hence his substantial interest.

The Corporation Commission has had a call from a delegation from Caldwell county seeking to get some relief from the 20 per cent increase in the tax assessment against real estate in the inter-county equalization. After the conference members of the commission said that the spirit of the delegation was splendid as they came for a cordial interchange of views as to the situation, making a special plea in their case that there is an exceptionally large amount of waste lands in Caldwell that should not bear the high average of assessments. They went away satisfied without obtaining any promise of modification of the order.

Adjutant General Young, of the North Carolina National Guard, has forwarded to the War Department reports from the captains of the companies of the North Carolina National Guard and the commanding officers of the several regiments as to steps taken to eliminate the deficiencies charged up to each in the annual inspections held last spring. General Young says the reports show mat the officers have taken a firm and determined hold on the situation and have eliminated the deficiencies satisfactorily. Furthermore, the Adjutant General's department has dealt with the deficiency in the matter of equipment with the result that additional equipment is assured to meet all requirements and is being issued as rapidly as available from the War Department.

There has just been held in the State Department of Health here a conference between Dr. W. S. Rankin, secretary of the Board of Health, and four recently elected whole time county health officers, Drs. D. C. Absher, of Vance; M. T. Edgerton, Pitt; E. R. Hardin, of Sampson, and J. C. Braswell, of Nash, for the adoption of uniform means and methods for the control of infectious diseases. Dr. G. M. Cooper, who is working with Dr. Rankin in furthering this work by the State board, took a hand in the conference and the whole matter was gone into thoroughly with the result that there is every assurance that the whole time superintendents will be fully backed by their respective counties in the contemplated co-operation with the State board in medical school inspection and other unit health work.

TO ERECT MONUMENT TO THE MEMORY OF GOVERNOR JARVIS

Jarvis Memorial Association Launched at Meeting in Greenville.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Greenville, N. C., Sept. 22.—At a memorial meeting held in the court house here this afternoon, for which Judge Bond adjourned court for the afternoon, Jarvis Memorial Association was launched for the purpose of erecting a monument to the memory of former Governor Thomas J. Jarvis, late of this city. Messrs. D. M. Clark, F. C. Harding and President R. H. Wright of the East Carolina Teacher Training School, were named as a committee on organization.

The organization was initiated following addresses by Congressman John H. Small, Messrs. Harry Skinner, H. S. Ward, L. I. Moore and President Wright and others. About 300 Training School girls were present, also a large number of citizens of the city and county. Letters of regret at their inability to be present were read from justices of the Supreme Court, State officials and others. Judge Bond presided at the meeting and made the closing address. Prayer was offered by Rev. Mr. Daniel, pastor of Jarvis Memorial Methodist church.

COMPLETION OF THE $300,000 ENDOWMENT FUND ANNOUNCED

Salem Academy and College Has Spendid Opening.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Winston-Salem, N. C., Sept. 22.—At the opening of the 114th annual session of Salem Academy and College on Wednesday morning the announcement was made of the final completion of the $300,000 endowment fund which unites the gifts of 1,700 alumnae and friends in combination with those of Andrew Carnegie and the General Education Board of New York City.

Every space in the college has been taken and the freshman class numbers 56, the largest in the history of the institution, with every freshman a graduate of a four-year high school. Every eastern state south of the New England states with the exception of Delaware, is represented and the enrollment shows an increase of 45 over that of the same date of last year.

ALL BIDS REJECTED.

Wilson Does Not Propose to Sell Bonds at a Sacrifice.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Wilson, N. C., Sept. 22.—The sealed bids for $95,000 water bonds and for the $75,000 gas bonds were opened by the town commissioners last night and after a canvass of the bids, all were rejected. There were three bids, from the Providence Savings Bank of Cincinnati, Field Richards Company, of Cincinnati, and Security Trust Company, of Spartanburg, but all of them were below par. The commissioners are not willing to sell Wilson bonds at a sacrifice and they do not feel that it is necessary. The engineering work for these improvements has just started and it will be some time yet before the money is needed, anyway.

Acute Articular Rheumatism

Relieved By Anti-Kamnia Tablets

The exact cause of rheumatism is unknown, though it is generally believed to be due to an excess of uric acid in the blood. It may be also said with equal truth that no remedy has been found which is a specific in all cases. In fact the literature of rheumatism shows that there are but few drugs which have not been given a trial. In the hands of one observer we find that a certain drug has been used with the utmost satisfaction; others have found the same remedy to be a great disappointment. All physicians however agree that every method of treatment is aided by the administration of some remedy to relieve the pain and quiet the nervous system and Dr. W. S. Schultze expresses the opinion of thousands of practitioners when he says that Anti-kamnia Tablets should be given preference over all other remedies for the relief of the pain in all forms of rheumatism. These tablets can be purchased in any quantity. They are also unsurpassed in headaches, neuralgias and all pain. Ask for A-K Tablets.

WEEKLY SUMMARY.

Weather and Crop Conditions of a Week Throughout North Carolina.

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 22.—The local weather bureau issues the following summary of weather and crop conditions throughout the State for the week ending today:

"The weather continued warm with excessive sunshine followed by scattered showers at the close of the week. The prolonged hot, dry period forced cotton open rapidly and there are many complaints of the plant deteriorating and turning yellow where land was not well fertilized; picking has been rushed in clean condition. The week was favorable for haying and pulling fodder. Cutting tobacco is nearly completed. Rain is needed for all crops, especially for some late corn, clover, fall truck and to soften the soil for plowing."

COLLAR BONE BROKEN TWICE.

Little Child of Warsaw Meets Same Accident Two Times.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Warsaw, N. C., Sept. 22.—Lois Frazelle, five-year-old daughter of Mr. E. L. Frazelle, residing six miles from Warsaw, has broken her collar bone twice within the last month. The first time it was broken, she fell from the steps on a stone, and before the bone had knit, she fell again while at play and broke it again. Dr. Farrior, of Kenansville, has set the broken bones, and the child is getting along nicely at present.

HUSBAND RESCUED DESPAIRING WIFE

After Four Years of Discouraging Conditions, Mrs. Bullock Gave Up in Despair. Husband Came to Rescue.

Catron, Ky.—In an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Bettie Bullock writes as follows: "I suffered for four years, with womanly troubles, and during this time, I could only sit up for a little while, and could not walk anywhere at all. At times, I would have severe pains in my left side.

The doctor was called in, and his treatment relieved me for a while, but I was soon confined to my bed again. After that, nothing seemed to do me any good. I had gotten so weak I could not stand, and I gave up in despair.

At last, my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I commenced taking it. From the very first dose, I could tell it was helping me. I can now walk two miles without its tiring me, and am doing all my work."

If you are all run down from womanly troubles, don't give up in despair. Try Cardui, the woman's tonic. It has helped more than a million women, in its 50 years of continuous success, and should surely help you, too. Your druggist has sold Cardui for years. He knows what it will do. Ask him. He will recommend it. Begin taking Cardui today.

TOP O' THE MORNING

Bother your groaning!
Forever bemoaning
That Fortune has brought you nor Pleasure nor Pelf!
Before you begin it,
Forget it a minute,
And think of the thousands worse off
than yourself.

—WILLIAM DeRYEE.

We want to see the war end for humanity's sake, also for the fun of seeing cotton jump to 15 or 20 cents.

Owing to the fact that an oyster never kicks, it can always expect to be downed.

The Bull Moose no longer depends on its head and horns, but depends upon kicking now and then.

The name of a Hungarian paper is the Szabadsag. Sounds as if it might as well be called the Sandbag.

It makes not so much difference which route it takes, so it's a good highway from here to Charlotte.

Tuesday was summer. Wednesday was fall. A variation of 30 degrees in temperature was some drop in 24 hours.

We may have no share in Europe's old war, but we will have our share in the hard feelings that will last for fifty years.

When they think of anything they want, they ask America. No wonder we have exalted ideas of what we could do if we wanted to do it.

None of the submarine captains take credit for sinking the Hesperian. No one seems to have suspected that the ship was sent to the bottom by a bum.

A Western bank advertises for a tall cashier on account of his being short. A foreigner learning the American language would be puzzled in his attempt to catch the idea.

A cottager at Wrightsville Beach complains that within a week not less than 100 chickens have been stolen. It is a bachelor's idea that all the chickens had gone home till next summer.

It is said there is to be no national law for compulsory military service in this country. Just the same there ought to be such a law, applicable solely to jingoes. We could be induced to favor war, provided that only jingoes be eligible for service.

Of course, they'll get the money. That's what they came for. The Anglo-French financial scouts only came over to close up the deal and make everybody understand the terms upon which they propose to get the billion.

They are preparing us by easy stages against surprise at the inevitable recognition of the Carranza government in Mexico. Necessarily the opposition has to be recognized as belligerent, whether it be formally done or not.

One thing nobody can do is to express a neutral view without being charged with being "pro." One with a purely American view is subject to charges by all sides. When we shut our eyes and listen it sounds as if we are in Europe and that it's our fight going on.

Flour mill running day and night; farmers who have been making their own meat, hereafter going to make their own bread, also; sewerage system soon to be in operation in county seat; highways through county being built; tobacco sales heavy; 5,000 bales of cotton held over from 1914 to be sold with this year's crop at and above ten cents; some holding for 15 cents and expecting probably 20. All this is reported from the prosperous county of Sampson, whose people, perhaps, more than any other county in the State, have had it dinned into their ears for years that a Democratic administration in Washington would make paupers of them all and bring calamity and ruin.

TURN THE DOLLAR LOOSE

When we warehouse our products and lock up our money we put the brakes on business and industry. With a resolute purpose we did that last year to good advantage, but this year it is the turn of business and industry to have fair play.

That can be done by turning money loose. We will have to let the dollar go if we expect conditions to improve and a normal situation to come about as a consequence. Fortunately, the financial situation is now such that everyone of us can afford to do that. Producers, consumers, debtors and creditors owe it to themselves to do something to ease up the situation brought about by sitting tight for the last twelve months. They have the means of doing it now but could not do so last year, for we did not have the financial facilities that have been provided by the Federal Reserve banking act.

It is now the debtors' turn to do something for the creditors so that all in the same boat may go sailing on together. It is time to liquidate, so the business and industry of the country can catch up with the procession. Business and industry saved the day last year, and producers and debtors must save the day this year.

All producers are not debtors, but many debtors are producers who have been tided over the breakers which almost engulfed the South when the war broke out in Europe. Those of us who owe debts ought to pay up and those of us who are cotton producers have two ways of doing it. One way is to dispose of enough cotton to pay our creditors all or something of what we owe. The other way is to warehouse our cotton and borrow enough money on it to help out the time merchants and others of the creditor class.

The beauty about it is that it is optional whether we sell cotton and pay some of our debts, or whether we hold it for better prices by putting it in warehouses so we can borrow from the banks in order to help our creditors and start the wheels of business and industry to rolling.

Remember, producers of the debtor class do not have to sell cotton in order to turn money loose by paying some of their obligations. They have the alternative of going into the banks with warehouse certificates which are acceptable collateral for loans that will enable debtors to help their creditors at a time when it means everything for the interest of all alike.

A banker said to us yesterday that The Star is on the right track along this line, and that so far as loaning money is concerned, his bank is inviting all that kind of business it can get. In that way producers who prefer to hold their cotton can do so, and at the same time help those who helped them at a critical time last year.

Think what an advantage it is for all classes alike to have a present financial system so capable of relieving the situation. It gives flexibility to business, and a general loosening up is what this country needs in order to bring about prosperity.

The demand for everything will increase when business gets better and it is demand that always helps the producer. The way is now clear for the producers to save the day. Last year it was saved by the fertilizer companies, the banks and the merchants. When equilibrium between supply and demand is restored we will have good times again. Doing business makes times good and it is the evidence of prosperity when business activity prevails.

THE DYESTUFFS PROBLEM.

One of the few dark spots in the cotton outlook is the growing seriousness of the dyestuffs problem, for big New England mills which are running time on colors are already beginning to curtail production. A Boston dispatch on Monday states that a number of Massachusetts mills have had to cut down the time of operating. The Amoskeag mills are running only four days in the week. The Pacific mills, the Bates Manufacturing Company, the Lancaster mills, the Parkhill mills and other huge concerns also have been compelled to curtail and refuse contracts.

The colored cloth mills are the ones affected. Some of the mills are entirely out of live colors, while other colors are so short that they will be exhausted almost immediately. Prices for dyes have firmed 'way up yonder. Sulphur black, which was fifteen cents before the war, is now four dollars.

The situation is peculiar in that the mill men are unable to say how long their colors will last—because there is no way of knowing what the buyers will ask for, what styles the public will demand. For instance, should should there come a run on indigo blue—always a popular color—the supply would be exhausted quickly. Naturally the mills with the largest credit will be able to buy a few odds and ends of colors which have been held for the big advances. One of the largest mills this week bought a small quantity of a certain scarce color for eight times its normal price. Five or ten pounds now are picked up eagerly and at tremendous advances, whereas formerly they bought by the barrel.

VOTING LIKE THE FATHERS

Once more a Republican paper accuses Southerners of voting the way they do because their fathers voted that way. Yes, but consider what splendid fathers they had, compared with Mutts who never had the honor of even being acquainted with the proud ancestry of a loyal posterity. We know people who haven't the slightest idea of going back on their fathers in order to agree with Republicans. Not on that ground!

It is complimentary to appeal to a man's common sense and reason, but it is different when men are asked to become renegades in order to be Republicans. Self-respecting men might, for a good reason, change their politics and yet continue to respect themselves, but not if they changed their way of voting in order to deliberately reject and repudiate the convictions of their own fathers.

Fortunately, all Republicans do not butt in with the father's vote idea, but such breaks do occasionally come from a class, who, to all intents and purposes, lack the gray matter that keeps a man from indulging in fool talk. Haven't you heard them do it?

In the first place, a self-respecting Republican party would not care for recruits who were capable of renouncing the faith of their fathers to adopt one which the majority of Republicans themselves repudiated when they preferred another in deciding to "stand at Armageddon." Don't give us any more tommy rot along the line that the votes of the fathers inferentially were cast by a set of blockheads who did not know what they were doing. Yea, they were wiser in their generation than the children of the lightheaded.

CAROLINA HOSIERY FOR THE NAVY

The United States Navy is to be congratulated that its entire enlisted personnel will be outfitted with black socks manufactured in North Carolina. They will get quality of material and superiority of product, for the Durham Hosiery Mills will manufacture and supply the goods.

The Durham Hosiery Mills are operated by General Julian S. Carr and sons, who have a string of knitting mills at several points in the State. They are not only turning out a superior article of hosiery products, but manufacture various grades of goods on an immense scale. The Durham Hosiery Mills got the Navy contract because their bid was the lowest of several competitors, and in order to get the contract, the North Carolina concern met the very highest specifications for black half-hose and met all the rigid tests and requirements of the Navy Department.

The contract is for a six months supply of socks for all the enlisted men of the Navy, the order being for 300,000 pairs. Owing to the difficulty of obtaining dyes, it is gratifying to state that the Durham Hosiery Mills shrewdly took care of themselves, and, furthermore, obtained a supply of American make. This North Carolina industry didn't get left, and its mills are running at full tilt.

It is a fine thing for North Carolina to have enterprising and plucky manufacturers like the Messrs. Carr. It brings money into the State to have a manufactory which goes up against all American concerns and proves its ability to lower the bids of all comers for high class goods.

"THE VOICE OF THE STATE"

To the Editor of The Star:

You reproduce in today's issue of The Star an editorial of the Raleigh News and Observer to which I would like to call attention for further comment. The original editorial was, I think, entitled "The Voice of the State," and commended Governor Locke Craig for declining to appoint twenty delegates to represent North Carolina in the National Security League.

While Governor Craig and The Observer were voicing the sentiments of the State in praising the diplomacy of, and in expressing further confidence in, President Wilson and his administration, they were both, it seems to me, begging the question. Suppose we "can well leave matters of 'preparedness' in the hands of the government at Washington"—now. Should we have done so, say in 1910? Shall we do so, say, in 1918 or 1922? And to my own knowledge they were not representing the whole State in failing to recognize the National Security League and in decrying the spirit behind such movements. Just today I heard a board of directors of a representative corporation of this city take issue sharply with the Observer and his excellency.

Ask the officers of the National Guard and Naval Militia about the need for national security leagues, the need for intelligent investigation and discussion by the private citizens of matters of national defense, the need for an enlightened public sentiment to stand behind and push forward measures for the true promotion of the general welfare in things naval and military. Ask Francis Cox, Esq., and the other North Carolinians who attended the training camp at Plattsburg. Ask Hon. Josephus Daniels and his famous advisory board.

Our own Secretary of the Navy anticipated all of the leagues; the position of Governor Craig and the Observer is absolutely inconsistent with that of Mr. Daniels; and the uniform praise of the judgment and action of the latter in respect to the advisory board shows clearly which side both the State and the Nation take.

Eternal vigilance in the shape of militarism, may be one price of safety; but this is a price which no one really beleves this democracy will ever pay. Certainly not, while that commodity can be much more easily and readily obtained through intelligent, scientific co-operation of our whole people and their government—the basic idea, I take it, underlying all "boards" and "leagues" that have the real welfare of this nation as their object. Respectfully,

CHAS. C. LOUGHLIN.
Wilmington, N. C., Sept. 22, 1915.

CONCERNING HON. J. A. BROWN.

To the Editor of The Star:

Public sentiment has crystalized or is fast crystalizing on two self-evident propositions, viz: That the best man should represent this district in Congress, and that availability should not be circumscribed by locality. This district is so situated that a representative of approved intelligence from any part thereof could have no other than a district-wide interest.

Mr. J. A. Brown is in many respects qualified to represent this district in a most successful and satisfactory way, and among the things to recommend him are these:

Starting as a fatherless boy eight years old, and without anyone to back him, by industry and native capacity he has amassed a competency and advanced himself to the position of one of the most successful business men in the district.

He has had large experience in public affairs, having represented his Senatorial district in the State Legislature with credit to himself and advantage to his constituents.

He is a clear thinker and engaging speaker, and has an ease of manner and dignity of bearing which inspire confidence and give him access to and influence with dominant public forces.

He was a pioneer in the colonization movement for this section, and the great strawberry industry of the Chadbourn section is largely the result of his grasp and foresight. He is unusually well informed of the business conditions and needs of the district, and has a faith in the future of this section which, as representative from this district at Washington, would enable him to accomplish much for our material development.

J. A. TAYLOR.

DUTIES OF THE ASSISTANT COUNTY HEALTH OFFICER

Apropos of recent inquiries as to the duties and responsibilities of the Assistant County Health Officer in New Hanover, Dr. Charles T. Nesbitt, Health Officer, has addressed the following letter to a prominent citizen of Wilmington setting forth the specific duties and responsibilities of the officer in question:

Pursuant to our conversation of this morning in which you suggested that a statement from me with reference to the specific duties and responsibilities of the Assistant County Health Officer might be valuable in avoiding further misunderstandings, I beg to submit the following:

These duties as laid down in Section 2, Chapter 1, of the Regulations Governing Health and Sanitation, New Hanover county, North Carolina, read as follows:

"The County Board of Health shall on the second Monday in January of odd years as set forth in an act of the General Assembly of North Carolina ratified the 7th day of March, 1911, elect some licensed physician who shall be known and designated as the Assistant Health Officer. He shall perform such duties as may be provided for such office under the regulations of the County Board of Health, and such as may be required of him by the Health Officer of the county. He shall be designated as Quarantine Officer for the county of New Hanover and shall be clothed with all necessary authority therefor. He shall assist the County Health Officer in his administrative duties and in the inspection of the public institutions of the county and the schools of the county, at such times as he may be directed so to do by the County Board of Health or the County Health Officer. He shall be required to give his entire time to the duties of his office if deemed necessary, and shall be paid such salary as may be duly fixed by the County Board of Health. In the absence of the County Health Officer from the county, or during his disability the Assistant Health Officer shall perform the duties of the County Health Officer and shall be clothed with the same authority."

You will see that under this section provision is made for a division of the administrative and executive functions of the County Health Officer. This section only provides for this particular kind of work while in addition to it the Assistant County Health Officer has assumed the duties of county physician and the duties of the clerk to the Board of Health which he performs in addition to his legal duties. Still further this department is called upon by the Board of County Commissioners to investigate all applicants for charity, admission to the County Home, and exemption from taxes. As there is no coroner's physician supplied under the statute other than the County Health Officer, this function must also be performed which involves investigation as to cause of death whenever deaths occur without medical attention.

The division of the work that we have gives the Assistant County Health Officer the field work and the Health Officer the administrative and executive work of the office.

The growth of the work has made it necessary for the Health Officer to remain in the office almost constantly. The general public is making so many demands upon the department and our departmental activities have grown to be so diverse that the administrative officer has no time for outside work. The result is that all of the field executive work falls upon the shoulders of the Assistant County Health Officer.

As acting county physician, which, as you will note by reference to the law, the Assistant County Health Officer is legally not required to assume these duties, he has the care of the physical welfare of the inmates of all county institutions, County Home, the various convict camps and the county jail, and gives free medical attendance to the indigent of the city and county. The number of persons in the county institutions average above 150. Practically all of the convicts are either in a diseased condition when they come to the camps or are in a low physical state from their manner of life. It is the policy of this department to give them prompt and thorough treatment so that they may become efficient laborers at the earliest possible moment. This in itself requires a great deal of work and numerous visits to these camps which are located in various parts of the county. Calls to these camps are answered both day and night and no medicine is given without specific instructions from the Assistant Health Officer. In addition he has entire control of the santation of the county institutions and of the twenty-six rural schools. Inspections of these places are made at intervals as well as inspection of country school children during the school term.

The indigent of the city and county are given medical attention both in their homes and in the dispensary which is maintained in the basement of the court house. This is the most difficult work that is at this time done by the Assistant Health Officer. Wilmington is surrounded on three sides by counties in which there is practically no provision made for medical attention for the indigent. It is a settled practice among the poor whites and negroes of Brunswick, Duplin, Pender, Bladen and Onslow counties to come to Wilmington when sick or in need for the purpose of obtaining hospital treatment and charity. In spite of all our efforts to control this matter, it is plain that not less than 20 per cent. of the charity dispensed in this county from the public funds goes to persons who are not legally entitled to it. The percentage is often very much greater. We hold that it is our duty to do everything in our power to lessen this public burden, and in dealing with professional paupers and imposters you can readily understand that nice methods are not always efficacious. If we are not allowed to discriminate and to handle this class of cases in an effective way, the public expenditures on this account would certainly double in a year and it would be necessary for us to undertake medical attention and sustenance for the whole indigent population of southeastern North Carolina. Our work along these lines is done in conjunction with the Associated Charities organization. The gentlemen and ladies who are identified with this organization will doubtless confirm my statement with reference to the difficulties which we encounter.

Our work is, and has been, seriously interfered with by persons who are dispensing misguided benevolence. Wilmington has more benevolent citizens than any town of my acquaintance. Professional paupers find in Wilmington a haven of refuge and a source of sustenance which is certainly not equalled in the South. It is certainly more blessed to give than to receive. It is also certain that when it is a crime or misdemeanor to receive, the giver becomes particeps criminis. Giving which produces a blessing upon the giver must also confer a blessing upon the recipient. When the recipient is a social parasite, able but unwilling to work, then the giver who gives to such a person becomes the most fruitful source of the production and maintenance of professional pauperism. This is one of the curses of Wilmington and in order to relieve our city and county government of what is becoming an intolerable burden, both financially and socially, all charity should be dispensed through the Associated Charities and under conditions which insure complete and strict investigations of every case. As I have said before, the investigation of these cases is not legally a part of the duties of the Health Department. This work has been given us as an additional responsibility which we would very gladly be relieved of. We will welcome the time when the Associated Charities will conduct their own investigations and when cases applying for treatment as indigent shall come to us through legal channels. As it is we must discriminate and must use our best judgment in dealing

GEO. O. GAYLORD and MISS ALMA BROWN

Have just returned from the Northern markets, where they have been for the past ten days, buying goods for the Big Store on Front Street.

Miss Brown had plenty of time to visit all the large, up-to-date places of fashion in the Millinery center, and has purchased from the best Millinery houses of the country a big stock of Millinery, Silks and Dress Goods, and the Big Department Store is now ready and anxious to show the very newest goods at their usual low prices, in the Dry Goods and Silk Department.

The date of the Fall Millinery Opening will be announced in a few days, when we will be prepared to show you the greatest variety of Hats and the most splendid line of Trimming and Ribbons that we have ever had on display. The Fall Season looks very promising now, and we are making great preparations to sell our customers the goods they want.

OUR SILK DEPARTMENT has had especial care in selecting styles and patterns for Waists and Dresses. We have everything in that line and will sell the goods for about 20 per cent. less than the usual price. Plaids and stripes are very scarce in the market, and also very much in demand, but we were fortunate enough to get a full assortment of these colors.

IN LADIES' HATS we bought about one thousand to start the season with, all new and pretty goods. We will sell them from 50c. apiece up. I bought a very pretty Fur Felt Knockabout Hat that I am going to sell for 69c; in white only. The value of it is $2.50, but it being slightly imperfect, I am going to sell it for 69c. Ten dozen Children's Velvet Tam Hats, trimmed, I am going to sell for 98c. which is less than half value.

We have splendid yard-wide Silk in black; the very best quality, at 89c.

Buying goods in New York is not an easy job, as you first have to find what your customers want and then select the styles and colors that your trade will require, and last but not least, you have to have the price low enough to please the people. We bought a large stock of goods of all kinds, and are in position to sell you a big stock of domestic goods very cheap.

Table Linen at unusually low prices. Table Oil Cloth for 15c. a yard. Good Bleaching at 6 1-2c. a yard. Good yard wide Cambric, at 8 1-2c. a yard. 81x90 inch Sheets with no seam, good quality, for 69c. each; 72x90 Sheets, one seam, for 35c. Pillow Cases, for 10c. each. Eider Down White Cotton Flannel, at 10c. a yard. Bleaching, at 9c.; Fruit of the Loom for 9 3-4c.

We have a splendid line of Printed Plaids that are made on 15c. a yard cloth, and will put on sale at 10c. a yard. Special At

CITY NOT TO EMPLOY ENGINEERING EXPERT

To Make Investigation of Water and Sewerage

Council Wants Definite Proposition from Tidewater Relative to Improvement of Water Street. Other Matters.

There will be no investigation of the water and sewerage department of the city of Wilmington by an engineering expert at this time but the special committee composed of Councilmen Jones, McCaig and Hall, which was appointed some time ago, will continue its work with a view to cutting down expenses, according to a report from the committee that was submitted to City Council at its regular weekly meeting yesterday morning.

Council did not have a long session and there were few matters for consideration. Mayor Moore presided and all members were present with the exception of Councilman McCaig. This was the first meeting to be held since the time for the weekly sessions was changed from Monday night to Wednesday morning.

Upon the suggestion of City Attorney Ruark, Council instructed Capt. Thos. D. Meares, city clerk and treasurer, to write a letter to the Tidewater Power Company requesting that this company submit a definite proposition for the improvement of Water, Surry and Nutt streets which are traversed by a car line. A letter was read from Mr. A. B. Skelding, general manager of the Tidewater, stating that plans are being prepared for the improvement of these streets.

There has been considerable complaint because of the condition of these three streets. The franchise for the tracks was granted originally to the old Wilmington Street Railway Company, of which the Tidewater Power Company is the successor. The tracks are now leased by the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company but City Attorney Ruark suggested that the city deal with the Tidewater company exclusively. He also pointed out that the conditions of the franchise are being violated by the character of the engines now being used on the tracks.

Councilman Jones is chairman of the special committee which is investigating the water and sewerage department, the committee having been appointed at his suggestion. The report submitted by him and signed by the other members of the committee pointed out that the fees that experts want for their services are entirely too high and also stated that it was not essentially an engineering proposition anyway but one which rather required the services of a practical man of experience in such work. In view of the limited financial resources of the city, it is not thought wise by the committee to expend a large sum of money but it is its purpose to continue the investigations and to hold public meetings at which complaints will be heard and suggestions received. The date for the meetings will be announced later.

K. C. Sidbury, Esq., was before Council to ask what had been done relative to the claim of Mrs. Tyler for compensation because of a broken leg she suffered some time ago. City Attorney Ruark called attention to the report of Councilman Bradshaw made at the last meeting in which it was stated that Mrs. Tyler had said she had not employed Mr. Sidbury as her attorney. Mr. Sidbury stated that it was his understanding that he had been and that he had since seen Mrs. Tyler and she wanted him to proceed in the matter. It was suggested that Mr. Sidbury get an authorization as attorney when the matter would be taken up further.

Councilman Hall for the finance committee reported that it had been found that different departments of the city were paying different prices for gasoline and that the same firm in some instances is making different charges. Inasmuch as the mayor is purchasing agent for the city, the matter was left in his hands to make arrangements for securing a uniform price.

Mr. C. B. Bellois asked that Ann street, between Sixth and Eighth, be improved. This section of street has been sadly neglected for many years, he said, and he thought that it was time something was being done. Mr. Bellois was assured that Council would be glad to do something, if it had the money. The matter was left in the hands of Councilman Bradshaw. Mr. Bellois said that the citizens living on Ann street are ready to pay their part towards improving the sidewalks, if the city will get busy.

Councilman Jones reported that the cost of installing an additional fire hydrant in the southern part of the city, in accordance with the request of a number of citizens, would be in the neighborhood of $2,000 and that the city was not able at this time to expend this much money for this purpose.

A letter was read from John Haritos offering to buy the old fire engine house at Sixth and Castle streets for $4,500, half of which is to be paid in cash and the other in two years. City Attorney Ruark ruled that the property could not be sold without advertising for 30 days and that it would then have to be put up at public auction. Council authorized that this be done.

At the request of Councilman Bunting, in charge of the fire department, Councilman Hall was added to the committee recently appointed to look into the matter of purchasing an automobile to be used by the fire chief in going to fires.

The bid of J. M. Solky & Co., to furnish 40 uniforms for the police department for $17 each was accepted upon the recommendation of Councilman Hall. Councilman Bunting stated that he had received two bids for furnishing uniforms for the fire department, one from Southerland & Weaver for $17.33 each and one from Mr. J. W. H. Fuchs for $15.20. He recommended that the higher priced material be purchased because of its superior quality.

In connection with the suit recently brought by Mary Jane Franks, a negro woman, against the city for $10,000 because of breaking her leg near the union station last spring when she claims she fell in a manhole, it was pointed out that a claim against the city had never been made out in writing. The matter was referred to City Attorney Ruark.

EVIDENCE COMPLETED IN TRIAL OF HORNE

Many Witnesses Testify Regarding Mental Condition.

Different Views Expressed as to Soundness of Mind of Defendant —Attorneys to Make Arguments to Jury Today.

The evidence both for the State and the defendant in the case of Melvin Horne, who is being tried in Superior Court for the killing of Mr. D. L. T. Capps, was practically completed yesterday and the attorneys will make their arguments to the jury today. The defense will likely call one or two witnesses this morning to offer testimony in rebuttal to the last evidence presented by the State. Many witnesses were examined yesterday, all of the evidence centering around the question of the mental condition of the defendant at the time he killed Capps.

Dr. Arnold Stovall, of Wilmington, was the last witness to be placed on the stand yesterday. He had been asked to testify by the court with a view to giving an impartial opinion as the sanity or insanity of Horne. Dr. Stovall stated that from a medical standpoint he would consider Horne insane but that from a medical-legal view he would consider him sane.

Attorneys for the defense took exception to this as being a conflicting statement and moved that his testimony be stricken off the record. The court overruled the objection and explained the position of the physician to be that Dr. Stovall while regarding the defendant as being abnormal mentally believed that he knew right from wrong.

Dr. Harlee Bellamy was placed on the stand by the defense yesterday morning and after giving a history of Horne's case stated that he considered him to be insane. The witness was of the opinion that Horne's conduct on the witness stand Tuesday afternoon was abnormal and believed that his actions were genuine. On cross-examination, Dr. Bellamy said that Horne was deluded into thinking he was doing right when he killed Capps. A normal man would not think a business transaction would cause the death of Horne's wife, the witness stated. Dr. Bellamy stated that few men are normal but very few men commit crime because they have no strain or occasion.

Dr. Joseph Akerman, former superintendent of the James Walker Memorial Hospital, was placed on the stand by the defense and testified regarding the treatment of Horne in the hospital on several occasions. He said that Horne did not respond to ordinary doses of morphine.

Dr. Stovall in his testimony stated that he had made a special study of insanity but was not a specialist. He stated further that he hade made a special study of Horne at the request of the court and that it was at the instance of the court that he was testifying. Judge Rountree then stated that either the State or the defense might examine Dr. Stovall. When it seemed that neither side wanted to ask any question, Judge Rountree said he would examine the witness himself.

Solicitor Lyon then stated that he desired to ask Dr. Stovall if he had observed anything about Horne that would indicate that the defendant was not sane at the time the tragedy occurred and the witness replied that he had not.

Dr. Stovall said he had been unable to find anything in Horne's family that indicated there had been any insanity. The witness said he had been led to believe that Horne did not take any morphine before the killing of Capps. He told of the effect of morphine on those who become habitual users of the drug. He declared that its effect is undoubtedly to interfere with thought and causes the victim to become sluggish. If a man is abnormal and starts to take morphine, the witness stated, it may develop into a form of insanity.

The witness defined the form of insanity known to the medical profession as paranoia and stated that it is a systematized delusion. A man afflicted with the disease reasons logically on false premises. For instance the witness pointed out that a paranoiac may believe that a man is constantly pursuing him and become so obsessed with the idea that the paranoiac may kill him.

Dr. Stovall declared that he did not believe that Horne was a paranoiac but from a medical standpoint considered Horne to be insane while from a medical-legal standpoint he thought he was sane.

At this point attorneys for the defense held a conference and as a result decided to ask that the testimony of Dr. Stovall be stricken off the record, but the court did not sustain their objection.

After answering several questions asked by the defendant's attorneys, relative to abortive paranialism, Dr. Stovall was excused and court was adjourned for the day.

Dr. John Thames, assistant county health officer, was placed on the stand by the State and testified that while he had been practicing medicine for 21 years he had never had much experience with insane people. He stated that he had known Horne for about four years and had visited him when he was in jail about two years ago and also since his last incareration. He also saw him when he was a guard at one of the county convict camps in 1914. He declared that he had never given Horne any morphine and had not observed any effects of morphine when he had seen him in jail recently.

In answer to a question by Solicitor Lyon, he said he had never seen Horne when he thought that he (Horne) did not know right from wrong. He and not administered any hypodermic on Tuesday afternoon when Horne while testifying on the witness stand had asked for something to quiet his nerves, the witness stated.

The witness stated that he had treated Horne for the morphine habit when he was in jail two years ago and that Horne had told him that he had not used it since. He had made no careful examination of Horne to find out whether or not his statement was true.

Dr. Akerman was superintendent of the James Walker Memorial Hospital several years ago, when Horne had his right arm amputated. The witness said that Horne explained to him that he had been taking morphine since an operation about six years ago. He had found Horne to be more nervous than ordinary patients, and that he often acted like a child. He had found that Horne did not respond to ordinary doses of morphine.

Attorneys for the State asked Dr. Akerman a hypothetical question to the effect that if a person had been addicted to the use of morphine would he, in the absence of the drug, having been wildly excited, as Horne was on the witness stand Tuesday afternoon, grow better or worse, if morphine was not given him.

Dr. Akerman thought that the absence of the drug would increase the nervous condition rather than decrease it. Dr. Akerman stated that Horne having quieted down, as he did Tuesday afternoon, without the use of the drug, was not natural, but it might have been due to physical exhaustion.

The first witness to be placed on the stand yesterday morning by the defense was Mr. W. M. Sneeden, who stated that he had seen Horne on the morning the tragedy occurred and that he had looked wild in the eyes.

Mr. Ben. Horne, brother of the defendant, testified that he (Horne) was not right in his mind, at times.

John W. Gafford, Esq., testified that he had not been intimate with Horne for three or four years, but had always considered him sane.

Ed. Smith, who has been in jail with Horne, stated that Horne had asked him several times to get him some morphine.

Jailer John Branch testified that Horne had complained since his incarceration of insomnia and had been very nervous. His condition had been such at one time as to cause the jailer to keep a strict watch over him to keep him from injuring himself.

Policeman H. G. Bullard testified that he had seen Horne on the day of the shooting, and had considered him sane and normal.

Chief of Police Williams, Councilman J. M. Hall and Mr. W. A. McGowan testified that they considered Horne to be a sane man.

The first witness to be placed on the stand yesterday afternoon by the State was Mr. R. C. Fergus, who stated that he had known Horne all his life. He had seen Horne at Crumpler's restaurant about 9 A. M. on the day Capps was shot, and had seen him on the streets about an hour later. "From what I know about him, I would say he was a sane man," the witness stated.

Mr. L. H. Simmons was the next witness examined, and stated he had known Horne six or eight years. He had talked with him on the morning of the tragedy, the witness stated, and Horne had asked him about getting

SEVERAL GAMBLERS PAY FINES

Recorder Had Busy Day Yesterday —Disposes of Many Minor Cases in Short Order.

The cases of the young white men arrested on charges of gambling last Saturday night in the Grand building were brought up again in the Recorder's court yesterday. Pet Patterson, E. L. Turner, J. H. Taylor, E. Wendley, Ennett Williams, Joe Holland and R. A. Brown were each required to pay a fine of $5 and costs. Messrs. C. S. Robinson and C. A. Workheiser, charged with running a gambling house, were discharged. Mr. Workheiser testified that he had given a friend permission to go to his room to write a letter, when a crowd of fellows went up later to play a friendly game of poker. It was also shown that Mr. Robinson had nothing whatever to do with getting any boys into the room to play cards.

Tank, alias Frank Williams, colored, was tried on a charge of vagrancy and larceny, and found not guilty in both cases. Dora Williams, colored, was called on a charge of an assault with deadly weapon, but the case was continued on account of the absence of a witness who is now in the James Walker Memorial Hospital.

Sol Manago, the negro sent over from Justice Bornemann's court, on a charge of assault with deadly weapon on another negro man, was sent to the road for 30 days in default of costs. Walter Bell, white, charged with assault with deadly weapon, paid $5 and costs. He first gave notice of appeal, which was afterwards withdrawn. Preston Loftan, colored, is in jail awaiting another hearing today on a charge of an assault on a female. Ammie Carter, colored, sent over from Justice Bornemann's court on a charge of assault with deadly weapon, was sentenced to 60 days on the county roads in default of $5 and costs. D. D. Clemmons, white, will have a hearing today on charge of larceny. The case of larceny against Pet Patterson, colored, was dismissed. Frank Sears, white, paid the costs in a case of disorderly conduct. There was no disposition made of the case against John Galloway, colored, on a charge of vagrancy.

FIRST AUTUMN WEATHER.

Thermometer Drops With Advent of New Season—Very Pleasant.

With the advent of autumn yesterday the thermometer dropped from the summer heights it had held through September to cool autumn weather. Not having been below 85 degrees during the past 20 days, it dropped yesterday to 68 as a maximum and 59 as a minimum.

The change was very much appreciated, and everybody seemed to forget their troubles yesterday. Everybody walked briskly and business was on a hum. For the first time in months a few overcoats were seen on the streets, and the young ladies came out in the winter coats, of bright colors, that were very pleasing to the eyes of those on the streets.

Sad for the bright hopes that had been cherished that the heat was over, Mr. Felger shook his head yesterday, and said it couldn't last but three or four days. More hot weather yet, but the little change for these few days is pleasing to say the least.

THOUSAND YEARS OF PEACE.

Rev. Mr. Hatch Will Discuss Twentieth of Revelations.

At the Advent Christian church, Sixth street, between Church and Castle, the blind orator, Rev. A. E. Hatch, spoke last night on the "Three Ange' Messages." Tonight he will discuss the 20th of Revelations and the possibility of a thousand years of peace. The subject is important. There will be good music, with choir and orchestra. Seats are free. All are invited.

HOLLAND MAY DIE.

Dora Williams, Colored, Who Cut Him, Awaiting Trial.

Report comes from the James Walker Memorial Hospital that Joe Holland, colored, may die as a result of knife wounds said to have been inflicted on him by Dora Williams, a negro woman, who is now in jail awaiting the result of the wound before her trial.

MR. JAMES C. LODOR DEAD

Chief Clerk in Office of United States Engineer for Thirty Years—Funeral This Afternoon.

Mr. James C. Lodor passed away yesterday afternoon at 2:40 o'clock at his home, No. 216 Chestnut street, after an illness of four weeks from heart trouble and a complication of diseases. This announcement will bring sorrow to many hundreds of friends here and elsewhere. It had been known for some days that he was critically ill but his host of friends hoped that he might recover.

Born in Southern Alabama on August 25, 1853, Mr. Lodor was in the 63rd year of his age. In early manhood he entered the service of the engineering department of the United States army and served in various capacities in Mississippi and Tennessee. He came to Wilmington from Chattanooga, Tenn., in 1884 to become chief clerk in the office of Capt. W. H. Bixby, who was then in charge of this district, and remained in this capacity until his death.

He rendered efficient and loyal service throughout his long career and because of his wide experience and thorough acquaintance with the details of the engineer's office was an invaluable man to the department. He was most conscientious in the discharge of his duty not only in a public capacity but also as a man and citizen.

In 1883, Mr. Lodor married Miss Mattie Henderson, of Chattanooga, Tenn., who survives him. Surviving also are four sons and one daughter as follows: Mr. James C. Lodor, Jr., of Chattanooga, Tenn.; Messrs. Samuel H., J. Barclay and Charles Lodor, of Wilmington, and Miss Bessie D. Lodor, of this city, all of whom will have the tenderest sympathy of a wide circle of friends.

Mr. Lodor was a member of St. John's Lodge, No. 1, A. F. & A. M., and of Concord Chapter, No. 1, Royal Arch Masons. He was also a member of Cornelius Harnett Council, Royal Arcanum. He was a member of the Episcopal church.

He was a man devoted to his family and to his work. He was unaffected in manner, outspoken in his convictions, hated sham and hypocrisy and believed in his fellowman. He had few diversions but devoted his hours of recreation to these the same faithful attention he always did to his work. He will be sadly missed by his many friends, who were deeply attached to him. His friendly disposition was from the heart and had in it the element of honest sincerity. He was fearless in his beliefs and always upright in conduct.

It was Mr. Lodor's last request that he should be buried in Chattanooga, Tenn., and the remains, accompanied by members of the family and friends, will be taken to that city on the 3:45 Atlantic Coast Line train this afternoon. The interment will take place in that city tomorrow afternoon.

There will be funeral services from the residence this afternoon at 2:45 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Dr. William H. Milton, rector of St. James' Episcopal church.

The pallbearers from the residence to the train will be as follows: Honorary, Capt. C. S. Ridley, U. S. A., Wm. B. McKoy, Esq., and Messrs. H. McL. Green and R. C. Merritt; active, B. G. Empie and George H. Howell, Esqs., and Messrs. Charles E. Taylor, Jr., Norwood Huske, Sr., H. H. Ford and J. Frank Jarman.

MR. HINES IS TRUSTEE.

Wilmington Grain and Provision Company Makes Assignment.

Mr. E. C. Hines was named as trustee yesterday by Messrs. E. G. Peschau and T. A. Croom, who have been trading and doing business as the Wilmington Grain & Provision Co., at No. 119 South Front street, and he is directed to take charge of the business and dispose of the same to the best advantage. Both partners claim the exemptions allowed by law and the trustee is to receive 5 per cent commission on receipts and disbursements. After paying these claims and $50 to L. Clayton Grant, Esq., for legal services, the remainder is to be distributed pro rata among the creditors according to their respective claims.

JEWISH FESTIVAL BEGINS.

The Feast of Tabernacles, or Sukkoth, Lasts to October 1st.

Beginning with last night the Jewish Feast of the Tabernacle, or Sukkoth, will last until the first of October. Services will be held in Jewish synagogues throughout the country today.

This feast is for the purpose of getting acquainted with the larger influences of home, national and international life. It is not as a time to gloat over the temporary victories in the economical field, but to study the bigger questions of political economy.

With this, the social side of life is not forgotten and the Jewish ideas along these lines are very interesting to study and very helpful to live by.

Not Ernest Williamson.

Mr. Ernest Williamson, employed at the City Grocery Company, feels that some of his friends might think him the man who was arrested with a number of others early on Sunday morning, and for that reason asks the press to state that he is not the man and was not one of the parties connected with the affair.

DAUGHTER OF R. D. GILMER TO SING IN CONCERT HERE.

Native North Carolinian Educated Abroad Now in Grand Opera.

Miss Josephine Gilmer, prima donna soprano, daughter of R. D. Gilmer, Esq., of Waynesville, N. C., formerly attorney general of this State, and the celebrated Italian tenor, Umberto Sorrentino, and the well known pianist, Franz Braun, will appear at the Boys' Brigade on October 23rd.

Miss Gilmer's well known name in this State assures interest for her and it is of special interest to know that her musical talents were discovered while she was in college at Raleigh. She attended both Peace Institute and St. Mary's College, but her operatic qualities were discovered by Mr. Jackson, vocal instructor of the Baptist University, now Meredith College.

Miss Gilmer was singing in Italy when the European war broke out, at which time she returned to America. Umberto Sorrentino, who accompanied Miss Gilmer, has been in grand opera two years, singing before over 200 audiences and being complimented by the press extensively.

PACKARD TWIN SIX.

Demonstration Car Here Yesterday. Found Many Admirers.

The "Packard Twin Six", representing about the last word in advanced automobile construction, was seen in Wilmington yesterday for the first time and many of the local motor fans visited MacMillan's garage to see the "Twin" in action. Mr. MacMillan, who is distributor for the car in this State, drove the machine from Raleigh, via Goldsboro, giving demonstrations along the way and in Wilmington the machine received an enthusiastic reception yesterday.

Although produced at a lower cost than last year's model of the same car, the new Packard is much in advance of previous offerings in this standard, high-priced car. It is practically silent, gets away with the motion of an air ship and is luxuriously furnished throughout. The car is on a tour of the entire country and was shipped from Wilmington to the dealer in Nashville, Tenn. Mr. MacMillan, the local dealer, expects to have a demonstration car permanently at his salesrooms within a short time.

SHALLOW WELLS MAY CAUSE TYPHOID OR OTHER FEVERS

City Health Department Making Effort to Secure Use of Pure Water.

Stating that the polluted water from the shallow wells cause practically all the fevers and other intestinal troubles during the winter, Dr. Charles T. Nesbitt, county health officer, and the other members of the department are making an effort to rid the city of these wells, or to stop the water from being used for drinking purposes.

It is a known fact that the drinking water used by people has a great influence on their health, Dr. Nesbitt states, and it is a sad fact that most of the poorer people of Wilmington use these wells which have been found to be unsanitary. If the tenants are too poor to pay for other facilities, they can protect their health by boiling the water before using it.

All should take advantage of this unparalleled rate for a world encircling tour, with guides in addition. A musical programme will be rendered in the last country visited.

MISS PARKER TO BE BRIDE OF REV. R. G. L. EDWARDS

Friends in Wilmington and elsewhere have received invitations reading as follows:

Rev. and Mrs. Asa Joseph Parker invite you to be present at the marriage of their daughter
Annie Clyde to
Rev. Robert Grandison Lee Edwards
Tuesday morning the 12th of October
at 7 o'clock
Fifth Street Methodist Episcopal Church, South,
Wilmington, North Carolina.

Rev. Mr. Edwards is a member of the North Carolina Methodist Conference and is pastor of the church at Yanceyville. He is a graduate of Trinity College. He is a son of Dr. J. E. Edwards, of Hookerton, N. C. Miss Parker is an accomplished young woman and has many friends.

While the wedding will take place in the church, it is the desire of both the prospective bride and the prospective groom that the decorations be no more elaborate than those for the regular Sunday services.

Discovery Enables Any One to Have Curly Hair

Quite accidentally some one made the discovery that the application of ordinary liquid silmerine would actually turn straight hair curly and wavy in a few hours. She told her friends about it, who, in turn told others, and now thousands of women have profited by the information. The simplicity and harmlessness of this method, and the way the hair dries in such pretty curls and crinkles, will appeal to any one who tries it.

The favorite way is to apply the silmerine with a clean tooth brush before retiring. The effect upon arising is quite surprising, the curliness having such a natural appearance and the hair being so bright and lustrous. Particularly will this be appreciated by the habitual user of the despoiling wave iron—which, happily, can now be discarded. The liquid silmerine, which can, of course, be obtained from any druggist, is neither sticky nor greasy. A few ounces will keep the hair curly for many weeks.—Mirror of Fashion.

"YELLOW TICKET" SPLENDID

Small Houses Greet Best Show of the Present Season.

Excepting musical comedies—and good ones are so scarce that the exception need not be applied often—it is almost always safe to judge the merit of a theatrical attraction in Wilmington by the size of the audience—the smaller the audience the better the show and vice versa.

This rule held good yesterday and last night when a company of artists presented Michael Morton's "The Yellow Ticket," at the Academy of Music, matinee and night. At each performance the audience was pitifully small.

"The Yellow Ticket" is founded on the prosecution of the Jews in Russia, and on the official passport issued by the Russian secret police to the women of the streets. The story is builded around a young Jewess who takes a yellow ticket in order to be allowed to leave the Jewish pale of settlement to visit her dying father, and of her efforts to live a respectable life afterwards in spite of the persecutions of the police, who bend every effort to make her live up to the ticket.

Driven to bay at last, she appeals to the head of the "Okrana," the secret police, and, alone in his quarters, she is forced to take his life to defend her honor.

Thrown into prison, and about to be sent to Siberia for life, she is saved by the influence of a young American journalist who is in love with her, and the curtain falls as they prepare to leave Russia for the home of freedom—America.

Frederica Going, as Marya Varenka, the possessor of the Yellow ticket, portrays the difficult role in a manner that leaves nothing to be desired. The part allowed her ample scope for her talent, and, throughout the wide range of emotional acting it calls, for her art never fails to ring true.

Ralf J. Herbert portrays the part of Rolfe, the American journalist, to a degree of nicety that speaks well for his ability, and Fletcher Harvey as Baron Andrey and Louis Hartman as Monsieur Zoubatoff are two others whose work stands out in a cast that is without a single weak member.

Though somewhat brutal, "The Yellow Ticket" is a real show—decidedly the best of the present theatrical season here.

RETURN FROM EXTENDED AUTOMOBILE TRIP NORTH

Mr. and Mrs. C. Van Leuven and Mr. Hunt Have Pleasant Journey.

Mr. C. Van Leuven, president of the Carolina Trucking Development Company, Mrs. Van Leuven and Mr. Raymond Hunt, superintendent of the electrical department of the Tidewater Power Company, arrived in Wilmington Tuesday night from an extended trip North, which they made in Mr. Van Leuven's automobile. They had a very pleasant trip, without a mishap of any kind.

Mr. Van Leuven had his machine shipped to Baltimore, and, leaving Wilmington three weeks ago, went to that city and then traveled to Kingston, N. Y., where he and Mrs. Van Leuven visited relatives. Mr. Hunt went by rail to Stockton, N. J., where he spent his vacation with his father. He joined Mr. and Mrs. Van Leuven in Philadelphia last Friday at noon.

They went to Baltimore, spending Friday night in that city; thence to Fredericksburg, Va., on Saturday, and to Petersburg, Va., on Sunday. The party reached Wilson Monday night and came from that place to Wilmington Tuesday. Mr. Van Leuven found good roads all the way from Kingston to this city, with the exception of the stretch between Washington and Richmond and Wilson to Wilmington. He made the entire trip from Kingston to Wilmington, a distance of 800 miles, without a puncture or mishap of any kind. The party was favored with fine weather, a little warm, of course, but ideal for automobile trips.

MERCHANTS OFFER PRIZES

For the Winners in the Field Events Under Auspices of Boys' Brigade on Saturday Afternoon.

The immediate interest of the members of the Boys' Brigade centers around the track meet to be held next Saturday afternoon, beginning at 3 o'clock at Hilton Park. Everything is in readiness, and there will be quite a number of the Brigade boys contesting for honors in the various events.

Points will be awarded for the first five places, as follows: First place, 10 points; second, 8 points; third 6 points; fourth, 4 points, and fifth 2 points. After all events are over the entrant who has the greatest number of points to his credit will be awarded the place of best all-round athlete. In addition to the honor of winning first place in any certain event, many members will enter several or all events so that a comparison can be made of the all-round athletic ability of different members.

These field events are planned primarily for the pleasure and development of the Brigade members, and no pretense is made at a public exhibition. However, the immediate friends of the Brigade members will doubtless witness the events in good numbers, and the general public is cordially invited to go out and enjoy the contests. There will be no charge for aumission and a convenient car schedule will be in operation. All entrants will put on their athletic suits at the armory and go from there to the grounds at Hilton, probably in jitney buses, leaving the armory at 2:30. The events will begin at 3 p. m.

A surprise feature of the events, not expected by the entrants to date, will be a list of prizes for first and second places in each event. Over a dozen Wilmington merchants have very kindly and generously offered articles as follows:

Shrief & Solomon, umbrella; Carl F. Strunck, pair tennis shoes; S. & B. Solomon, pair gym shoes; Northam's Book Store, baseball; C. W. Yates Co., baseball bat; A. David Co., hat; Palace Clothing Co., sweater; Baxter Cigar Co., calibash pipe; Sam'l. Bear & Son, jar cocoa; Woodall & Shepard, pipe; Bijou theatre, 6 books of tickets; Grand theatre, 6 books of Tickets.

In addition to the above Mr. C. W. Huggins has offered a silver loving cup to be placed in the Boys' Brigade army with the name of the best all-round athlete engraved on it. If these events are held every year, as is intended, the best all-round athlete each year will be recognized by having his name added on the Huggins' athletic cup.

The Brigade has been offered a cup every year for several years, by Mr. George Honnet, for the winning team in basket-ball games, and the above cup offered by Mr. Huggins will doubtless serve to stimulate general interest in all-round athletics.

CHANGED TO FIFTH AVENUE.

Methodist Church Conforms to Name of Street on Which Located.

At a church conference last night of Fifth Street Methodist church, it was decided that in order to make the name of the church conform to the street on which it is located, it should be changed to Fifth Avenue Methodist church. The street was changed some time ago to Fifth avenue instead of Fifth street.

While in session the conference considered a number of routine business matters.

Real Estate Transfers.

The following deeds were filed for record yesterday: Heirs of Jacob S. Allen to Minerva Hamilton, for $100 and other considerations, lot on the Sound, 100x200 feet in size; by another deed Minerva transfers the lot to Lee Greer for $50 and other considerations; Manhattan Company to D. B. Branch and wife, for $15 and other considerations, lots 17 and 94 at Fernside.

More Store Breakers.

Report was made to the police yesterday by Mr. Windsor, at Castle Haynes, that some one had broken into his store and took two and a half boxes of cigars and about 75 cents in nickels. On the same night, some one went to a sawmill at Castle Haynes and took off copper bearings and oil cups.

with this difficult problem. We have found here, as is true of every other city, that every applicant for public charity who does not get what he or she wants becomes a critic and subjects the refusing department to wholesale abuse and contumely. Our good ladies and gentlemen who as individuals undertake to dispense philanthropy come in contact with the imposter class more frequently than the truly needy. As might be expected, the first question they ask these people is whether or not they have applied to the public sources of charity. These imposters must admit having applied and must furnish a reason why they have not received relief. Without exception a tale of personal abuse, as pitifully told as possible, is the result. Charges of abuse made against this department were investigated by Mr. Willard when he was chairman of the County Board of Health. These charges were also investigated by Mr. M. J. Corbett, Mr. J. Allan Taylor and Mr. Harold Chase during a public investigation of the department. The same charges were further investigated by Mr. W. A. McGirt, the present chairman of the County Board of Health. Charges of the same kind were made during the city administration and were investigated by Mr. B. C. Moore then councilman in charge of the Department of Public Safety. It is comforting to know that none of these gentlemen were seriously impressed by the findings of these investigations.

The officials of this department are merely human beings, subject to human mistakes and human frailties. Everyone of us, myself included, have, under stress of overwork and irritation, lost our tempers. Everyone of us has been willing to make all reparation that could be justly expected from gentlemen. We are, however, like other human beings restive under abuse. We are very earnestly striving to give a high grade of efficiency. The present conditions in the county, our statistical data and comparison with similar work being done elsewhere lead us to believe that we have been at least moderately successful. All we ask is that our citizens shall attempt to realize our difficulties and shall be patient so far as is consistent. Whenever it becomes apparent that the good that is being accomplished by the Health Department is outweighed by evil of any sort which results from our work, it becomes the plain duty of the Board of Health to discontinue the services of any and every person in the department who contributes to that evil, and from my personal knowledge I can assure the public that the Board of Health will not retain any official or employe who does not measure up at least reasonably to the duties required of him.

I sincerely hope that I have made it clear to you, Mr. Grainger, that the Assistant County Health Officer as well as the County Health Officer occupies a very difficult and trying position in his public relations. He has really more work to do than should be expected of him under the circumstances. He has given unusually faithful service, the value of which seems to outweigh in importance any complaint concerning his personality and work which has reached me as yet.

Very sincerely yours,
CHAS. T. NESBITT,
County Health Officer.

COTTON CONTINUES ADVANCE

December Contracts Sell for 11.73 and Spot at 11.40—Reports German Buying in South.

New York, Sept. 22.—Early reactions were followed by another very rapid advance in the cotton market today, which carried all deliveries into new high ground for the movement, with December contracts selling at 11.73 or 24 points above last night's final figures. The close was several points off from the best under heavy realizing but the final tone was steady at a net gain of from 6 to 11 points for the day.

There seemed to be quite a good deal of reactionary sentiment at the start and realizing was promoted by the failure of Liverpool to fully meet yesterday's advance and the more favorable showing of the weather map. The opening was 2 to 8 points lower and active months sold off to a net loss of about 10 to 13 points on the prediction for warmer weatther and local selling for a reaction.

Offerings, however, were well taken around 10.98 for October and 11.49 for January, and the buying became extremely active and aggressive following the publication of the weekly weather report, which indicated that prospects for a top crop were less favorable. Private cables reporting that English statisticians estimated the world's consumption for this year at 15,000,000 bales also encouraged the renewal of bull support and many early sellers seemed to be covering on the advance which carried prices up to 11.32 for October and 11.84 for January during the middle of the afternoon. Reports from Atlanta that German interests were buying spots may have been a factor in connection with other bullish Southern advices and there were reports of a more active demand for cotton goods.

Futures closed steady:

NEW ORLEANS COTTON.

Prices Fluctuated, Ranging from Low Level to New High Mark.

New Orleans, Sept. 22.—Violent fluctuations occurred in the cotton market today, at one time putting prices well under the level of yesterday's close and at another putting them to a new high mark for the season. Spots shared in the rise, gaining 18 points at 10.87 for middling. At its best the future market was 21 to 26 points over yesterday's close. From the highest to the lowest there was a rise of 33 to 41 points, or more than $2 a bale on the strongest months. In the last few minutes of the session offerings from profit-taking bulls flooded the market and a sudden break wiped out a large part of the net gain, but final prices were 9 to 12 points over yesterday's close. In the early trading the market lost 12 to 17 points. Heavy liquidation was encouraged by the poor showing made by Liverpool.

The unfavorable weekly weather and crop reports, the cold wave over the West, an estimate on consumption for the season of 15,000,000 bales by an English authority, the better feeling in the spot market and exports increased bullish excitement and the market became strong and active.

Cotton futures closed: October 11.10; December 11.49; January 11.63; March 11.89; May 12.10.

Spot cotton steady, 18 points up. Sales on the spot 2,000 bales; to arrive 2,100; middling 10.

Boston, Sept. 22.— [illegible] manager of the Cleveland t[illegible] American League, has signed a contract to continue in the positio[illegible] season, President Charles W. [illegible] announced today.

WHEAT STRONG AND HIGHER

Decreasing Stocks in Northwest and Small Receipts Give Bulls Advantage—Corn Unsettled.

Chicago, September 22. — Decreasing stocks in the Northwest and disappointingly small receipts here gave a decided advantage today to the bull side of the wheat market. After a nearly continuous advance, prices closed strong, 1¾ to 4⅝c. net higher, with December at 95⅝@95½, and May at 98.

Corn finished ⅛@¼c off to ¼ up; oats, with a gain of ⅛@¼c. to ¼@⅝c., and provisions varying from 2½ decline to a rise of 12½.

Grian and provisions closing:

Wheat—September, 1.06⅛; December, 95⅝; May, 98.

Corn—December, 56⅛; May, 57⅝.

Oats—December, 35¾; May, 37¾.

Pork—October, 12.50; January, 14.97.

Lard—October, 8.07; January, 8.50.

Ribs—October, 8.00; January, 8.32.

Cash grain:

Wheat—No. 2, red, 1.14; No. 3, red, 1.08@1.12; No. 4, red, 1.01@1.07; No. 3, hard, 1.08@1.12.

Corn—No. 2, yellow, 74@74¼.

STOCK TRADING IS SHELLED

Extravagant Speculation in Specialties. 1,135,000 Shares Exchanged Some New High Prices.

New York, Sept. 22.—Further extravagant speculation in specialties helped to swell today's trading to the very large total of 1,135,000 shares. Of this amount United States Steel and Westinghouse Electric alone contributed about one-third, Steel incidentally advancing 2 3-4 to 78 3-4, its highest prices since 1912. Westinghouse made a maximum gain of 1 5-8 at 124 1-4, and closed at 120 3-8. Other very prominent features were American Car & Foundry, American Locomotive, Baldwin Locomotive, American Smelting, Mexican Petroleum and the automobile issues. New high prices were recorded by Bethlehem Steel, which rose at 359, Crucible Steel preferred at 107 7-8; Maxwell Motors common 57 1-2; the first preferred 94 3-4; the second preferred 49 1-4; Studebaker 145; Continental Can 92 3-8; Texas Company 157 1-2, and American Woolen 55 3-8.

General Motors, whose meteoric rise of recent days made it the most conspicuous of the specialties, opened at 345, an overnight gain of 22 points, fell off 10 and closed at 340.

In the railway division, Reading, Erie first preferred, Canadian Pacific, Soo preferred, Southern Railway preferred and Atlantic Coast Line improved their positions 1 to 2 points, but the inquiry for investment issues was relatively narrow. More foreign selling of American railway issues was reported from London.

Exchange markets continue to wait on the outcome of the loan negotiations, no changes of note being shown by today's rates. Sterling was a trifle steadier than continental remittances.

Bonds were firm, despite renewal of foreign selling. Total sales, par value, aggregated $3,880,000.

FIGHT ON ADULTS ILLITERACY.

About to Begin in Earnest in Wilson County.

Wilson, N. C., Sept. 22.—Under the auspices of the Junior Order, the Associated Charities and the graded school, Wilson is about to begin a fight on adult illiteracy in the town and county in earnest. According to the census reports, Wilson has a percentage of 16.3 white adult illiterate population and ranks 69 in the list of counties. There will be plenty of work to do.

COTTON SEED OIL MARKET.

The market closed easy. Spot, 6.25@6.40; September, 6.25@6.30; October, 6.29@6.31; November and March, 6.57@6.58; April, 6.70@6.71.

Wood's Special Grass and Clover Seed Mixtures sown early in the fall yield full crops of hay or grazing the following year.

There is no question but what our Special Grass and Clover Mixtures yield much better crops of hay, and the meadows or pastures will keep in good, productive condition very much longer than where only two or three varieties of grass or clover are sown.

Our Descriptive Fall Catalog gives full information in regard to these mixtures and all other Grass and Clover Seeds, Seed Wheat, Oats, Rye, Barley, etc. for Fall sowing. Catalog mailed free on request. Write for it and prices on any seeds you require.

WILSON INCLINED TO CONVENE SENATE SOON

Daniels and Kitchin to Speak in Rocky Mount.

C. E. Brinkerhoff Points Out Advantages for Immigrant Settlers in Eastern North Carolina—Tar Heels in Washington.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Washingtno, D. C., Sept. 22.—President Wilson is inclined to favor an extra session of the Senate to be called some time next month to consider the Colombian and Nicarauguan treaties and some form of cloture in the Senate. The President's attitude was made known at the White House this afternoon after he had talked with Senator W. J. Stone, of Missouri, chairman of the Senate foreign relations committee, and other influential statesmen.

Should the President decide to call the Senate into an extra session he would probably set the date for October 15 or thereabouts.

Secretary of the Navy Daniels told Mayor L. F. Tillery, Judge R. T. Fountain, State Senator T. T. Thorne and J. L. Horne, editor of the Rocky Mount Telegram, that he would deliver a speech before the Current Topics club in the near future, the date to be decided when the secretary can conveniently leave Washingon. Representative Claude Kitchinfi majority leader of the House of Ropresentatives, will speak to the club October 5.

C. E. Brinkerhoff, of New Berlin, is here on business. Mr. Brinkerhoff believes the State should encourage Norwegians, Swedes, Germans and other good foreign citizens to take up farming in Eastern North Carolina, where he believes any one with thrift and energy can do well.

Mr. and Mrs. Constantine and Miss Ely, of Asheville, are here for the winter. They will make their home at the Continental hotel.

Major Douglass Settle, wife and daughter are visiting their sister, Mrs. Samuel H. Boyd, in Cleveland Park.

SENATOR KERN DOUBTFUL.

Of Expediency of Calling Extra Session of the Senate.

Roanoke, Va., Sept. 22.—"I have communicated with a number of Senators in regard to calling a special session of the Senate," said Senator Kern tonight. "When the Senate adjourned last spring, I was strongly in favor of a special session. It was my belief that the Senate rules should be amended before the regular session so there would be no delay in the Senate's business later. I was of the opinion that an extra session could be called in October. However, since the European war situation has become so acute, I am doubtful of the expediency of an extra session. I think if the war situation is at all complicated it is doubtful whether we should hold on."

Speaking of the question of amending the Senate rules, the Senator said he was asked last spring by 41 Democratic senators to appoint a committee to revise the rules. "These senators," he said, "handed me a petition asking that I name a committee to amend the rules. I appointed a committee of five, with Senator Owen, of Oklahoma, as chairman. That committee has been at work during the interval, and should be ready to report by this time."

Senator Kern is staying at his country home, "Kern Cliffe", near Hollins, Va., and probably will remain there until his duties call him to Washington.

out whether this man is giving any trouble or not. As you will remember he is 59 years old and I have expected that freed from his old curse he will return to the life of a citizen and make his last days worthy of a free man."

The letter of Mrs. McCraw complains that she has never been able to get a divorce from her husband and his going back to Wilmington does find her still the lawful wife of McCraw. It is a very rare thing to see a pardon opposed by a wife but the killing of her mother had left her with an impression which time cannot erase.

Pluralities of Nominees in Massachusetts Primaries Increased.

Boston, Mass., Sept. 22. — A revision of the complete vote of the State in yesterday's joint primaries made today somewhat increased the plurality of the nominees. Governor Walsh was renominated for a third term, and Congressman McCall was chosen as his Republican opponent. The total vote of the State for the principal candidates was as follows:

Republican Governor: Samuel W. McCall, 64,872; Grafton D. Cushing, 59,211; Eugene N. Foss, 10,196. Lieutenant Governor: Calvin Coolidge, 73,870; Guy A. Ham, 49,946.

Democratic Governor: David I. Walsh, 74,468; Frederick S. Deitrick, 3,470.

GREAT BRITAIN PLANS TO EXTEND HER TRADE

To Secure Former Customers of Germany and Austria.

Government Has Established Information Bureau for Benefit of Merchants—Also to Encourage Extension of Manufacture.

Washington, Sept. 22.—Great Britain's plans for furthering the efforts of her merchants to establish the nucleus in world markets from which fleets of war are barring the once aggressive German and Austrian exporters, are outlined in announcements by the British board of trade received here today by the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce.

Commercial diplomatic representatives of Great Britain, the announcements say, will place at the disposal of British merchants all available information as to securing customers formerly supplied by German and Austrian firms. The board of trade also gives notice of the organization of a "confidential information" service through its commercial intelligence bureau to supply firms desiring to enter the foreign trade with "confidential information as to opportunities for the extension abroad of those branches of trade in which they are especially interested."

"In connection with the campaign which the board of trade have undertaken," says the board, "to assist and supplement the efforts of British manufacturers and merchants to profit by the present opportunity for establishing themselves in markets previously held by German and Austrian or Hungarian firms, the commercial intelligence branch of the board of trade has prepared a series of memoranda giving information with regard to possible developments in certain important trades.

"The importance that German manufacturers have placed upon the production of catalogues printed in the language and currency of the countries to which their goods were exported is well known. In order that British manufacturers may have an opportunity of inspecting catalogues of German origin, the board of trade have collected over 3,000 specimens, illustrating a great variety of industries and these may be inspected at the foreign samples section of the commercial intelligence bureau.

In addition to seeking to establish British products in foreign markets heretofore held by the Teutonic nations, the board of trade has begun a movement to encourage the manufacture in Great Britain of goods formerly imported from Germany and Austria.

are leaving their stations throughout the country.

The capital and the country are quiet. Public opinion is stiffening in support of Premier Radoslavoff.

Referring to the concentration of certain Bulgarian troops the premier yesterday informed the governmental members in parliament that the war danger in the Balkans had decreased, but that the Bulgarian government was obliged to resort to an armed neutrality.

Most of the troops stationed in Sofia left the capital last night and this morning.

MAY REACH AN AGREEMENT

Possible That Greece, Rumania and Bulgaria May Come to Terms.

Berlin, (via London), Sept. 22.—As far as can be learned in authoritative quarters here no word has been received in Berlin of a mobilization by either Greece or Rumania, nor are there any indications that Bulgaria's action will necessarily lead to a general outbreak in the Balkans. The belief is expressed in well-informed quarters that Rumania at least will remain quiet and the possibility of Greece, Rumania and Bulgaria reaching an agreement is entertained.

A dispatch to the Zeitung am Mittag from Vienna says that steps toward a general reproachment between the Balkan states is under way and with good prospects of success.

No word has yet reached Berlin of an Austro-German crossing into Serbia but bombardment by the Teutonic allies continues along the Serbian frontier from Macva and Semendria.

work at City Point, Va. The witness stated that Horne had said he understood that Mr. Simmons had recently been at City Point. "I saw nothing wrong with him, and thought he was perfectly sane" said the witness.

Mr. R. A. Burnett, county road superintendent, testified that Horne had been employed for about three months as a guard at one of the convict camps early in 1914. While he had not talked much with Horne, he thought he was sane, or he would not have employed him, the witness stated.

Mr. Henry Fergus testified that he had known Horne all his life, and considered Horne to be sane.

Deputy Sheriff Kelly testified that he had seen Horne on Second street about 1 P. M. on the day the tragedy occurred, and had spoken to him. He had not observed that there was anything wrong with the defendant.

Mr. Stacy Adams testified that he had seen Horne just after he fired the shots at Capps, and considered him to be normal. He had observed him going up Second street in a fast walk.

Mr. Walter Barnes testified that he had seen Horne in Starkey's cigar store about 1:30 o'clock on the day the tragedy occurred and Horne had asked him, the witness stated, what time Mr. Capps closed his place. He thought that Horne acted all right.

CONVENTION IS URGED IN SPITE OF CARRANZA

His Recognition Would Mean Anarchy, Says Garza.

Denies Carranza's Claim to Control Greater Part of Mexico—Obregon Reiterates Declaration of Loyalty to Carranza.

Washington, Sept. 22.—A gloomy picture of what would happen in Mexico in the event of the recognition of Carranza by the United States and other American republics is drawn in a statement issued tonight by Roque Gonzales Garza, one time president of the government and now in Washington to forward the peace convention plan which the Villa and Zapata elements have accepted at the invitation of the Pan-American conferees.

Garza urges that the convention be held to set up a provisional government in Mexico in spite of Carranza's refusal to participate, and declares anarchy soon would follow recognition of Carranza. Describing at length the present military situation, he denies Carranza's claim to control the greater part of Mexican territory, and expresses the belief that Carranza continues to delay his removal to Mexico City, because of fear that such a move would be followed by occupation of Vera Cruz by his enemies.

The Carranza agency tonight made public a message from General Obregon reiterating his declarations of loyalty to Carranza and denying reports that he had appointed representatives to treat with Villa.

eleventh hour change in the terms. One banker thought that the commission had been asked to make the interest rate 5 1-2 per cent. Another thought that the commission should offer the five year joint notes at 97 1-2 to the underwriters and 98 1-2 or thereabouts to the investor, instead of offering them to the investor at par. Still another report was that the commission had been advised that an even half billion dollars was the maximum amount which American bankers would be willing to lend at the present time.

CONFERENCE OF Y. M. C. A. SECRETARIES IN CHARLOTTE.

Many Interesting and Instructive Addresses Made Yesterday.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Charlotte, N. C., Sept. 22.—Practically all the Y. M. C. A. secretaries of North and South Carolina met in this city today for a two-day conference which opened this morning. Mr. E. E. Barnett, secretary of the Y. M. C. A. at Hang-Chow, China, which is supported by the Carolina associations, made a very inspiring and impressive address tonight on present day conditions in China. At the morning session Mr. Barnett told of the great possibilities of Y. M. C. A. work in China and of the part that the association in this country must take in the movement.

Mr. Odis B. Hinnant, city boys' secretary of Wilmington, was one of the speakers this morning, the subject of his address being "A Modern Boys' Work Programme." He urged the secretaries to grasp the opportunity to control the modern social movement.

The conference was opened with devotional exercises which were conducted by Rev. Dr. A. W. Blackwood, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, Columbia, S. C., who made a most practical talk on "Religion for Modern Man." Mr. G. C. Huntington, of the Interstate Committee, made a very practical and helpful talk on thrift.

Dr. Blackwood also conducted the devotional exercises at the afternoon session. "Character Building Through Social Activities," was the subject of an address by Mr. J. M. Holmes, secretary of the Y. M. C. A. in Greenville, S. C. He emphasized the social needs of young men and the part the associations should take in filling this need.

Mr. E. G. Wilson, interstate secretary of the Carolinas, outlined the programme of the interstate committee.

COTTON PICKING PROGRESSING.

No General Improvement—Crop and Weather Conditions.

Washington, Sept. 22.—The weekly weather and crop bulletin says:

"High temperatures over the cotton belt greatly favored the ripening and opening of the bolls and picking progressed rapidly in all portions. No general improvement of the crop was indicated, however, in fact deterioration was noted in some cases; weevil activity appears to have increased, and prospects for top crop are less promising than previously reported.

"In many portions of the South rain is now badly needed for fall truck, although in Southern Florida good rains relieved the drought, and citrus fruits and other crops were greatly benefited.

"In the principal sweet potato producing districts the weather has been favorable and large crops are being gathered."

SUPREME COURT DELIVERS OPINIONS IN 13 APPEALS

Case of Riley vs. Stone Argued in Appeal Before Court.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 22.—There were opinions delivered today in 13 appeals by the Supreme Court. One of the principal arguments today before the court was in Riley vs. Stone, from Chatham, in which there is appeal by Miss Riley in her case for $15,000 damages against W. H. Stone, of Greensboro, for false imprisonment and defamation of character through his having accused her of stealing articles from the store in Greensboro, where she was a saleslady.

The sole issue in the argument was the right of Judge Bond, in the Pittsboro trial, to allow a non-suit after a jury had decided the issue and allowed the plaintiff $1,000 damages.

The opinions follow: Card vs. Mason, Pasquotank, no error; Cutler vs. Cutler, Beaufort, affirmed; Cook vs. Veener Co., Pasquotank, no error; Sexton vs. Duff, Pasquotank, affirmed; Horton vs. Light and Water Co., Beaufort, new trial; Fowle vs. Warren, Beaufort, new trial; Elliott vs. Railroad Lumber Co., Beaufort, no error; Hobgood vs. Hobgood, Edgecomb, modified; Iron Co. vs. Bridge Co., Nash Reversed; Brown vs. Telegraph Co., Edgecomb; new trial; Marsh vs. Early, Hertford, reversed; Newell vs. Green, Warren, affirmed; Blueridge Interurban Rwy. Co., vs. Light and Power Co., Henderson, error.
